This study examines the use of prefabricated language (conventional lexical collocations) in the production of native and non-native writers of English. It first develops a framework for the description of restricted collocations and then reviews experimental research into the psycholinguistic processing of prefabricated language. Computer-based corpora of native and advanced non-native academic writing are analysed to discover to what extent and how such collocations are used in formal written English. Pedagogical implications are then considered, and the final part of the study examines the selection and presentation of restricted collocations in general and phraseological dictionaries for learners. The conclusion suggests that advanced learners need specialist collocational dictionaries, and the results of this research help to establish principles for the design of such dictionaries.

The second edition of this successful text provides an ideal introduction for university students of English at the intermediate level. Students planning papers, dissertations or theses will find the book a particularly valuable guide. After introducing corpora and the rationale and basic methodology of corpus linguistics, the authors present a number of recent case studies providing new insights into vocabulary, collocations, phraseology, metaphor and metonymy, syntactic structures, male and female language, and language change. A final chapter shows how the web and social media can be used as a source for linguistic investigations and contains information on how to compile your own corpus. Each chapter includes study questions, exercises and updated suggestions for further reading. #NDA/ NA 17 year Topic-wise Solved Papers (2006 - 2022) consists of last 17 years from 2006 - 2022 solved papers of General Ability Test distributed into 33 topics. #In all there are 31 Question papers (2006 April - 2022 April). #General Ability Test is divided into 2 parts – English and General Knowledge. #English is divided into 9 topics whereas General Knowledge is divided into 7 Units – Physics, Chemistry, Biology, History, Polity, Geography and General Awareness - which are further divided into 24 topics. #The book contains 4650 MCQ's (1550 in English & 3100 in GK) from the above 31 Question papers. #The strength of the book lies in the originality of its question papers and Errorless Solutions. #The solution of each and every question is provided in detail (step-by-step) so as to provide 100% concept clarity to the students.
