The mission of I Love You Still: A Memorial Baby Book is to cherish pregnancy, remember baby, and honor motherhood. Born and raised in Wayzata, Minnesota, Margaret Scofield attended the University of Arizona where she earned her BA in English with a minor in Family Studies and Human Development. In 2016, while taking time off from her career to start a family, Margaret's dear friend lost her daughter to miscarriage. As a new mom herself, Margaret wanted to do more to help. After she tried in vain to find a baby book that catered to the 1 in 4 women who endure miscarriage, Margaret's purpose became clear. In 2016, Margaret started a business and created the manuscript for I Love You Still: A Memorial Baby Book. Since then, the book has been circulated to over 20 countries, and her story has appeared on news outlets such as NBC News, The TODAY Show, People Magazine, FOX Television, and MSN News. Today, Margaret continues her mission to cherish pregnancy, remember baby, and honor motherhood by encouraging real conversation about

The Story of Jay's First Year and Fabulous Firsts. a Keepsake Baby Journal

I created this pregnancy journal so expecting mamas could have a place to document every stage of their pregnancy.

When I was pregnant with my first, Payson, I was so excited to start a pregnancy journal for her. When I got it I was disappointed in the questions & the overwhelming space to have to fill in. I wanted to create a simple, beautiful book that I'd want to display in my home & keep for my little ones so that they could look back on it forever. This book is all the thoughts and feelings I've had throughout my second pregnancy and it's everything I wish I had with my first. I hope you love it, find inspiration in it, & celebrate your pregnancy long after you have your sweet baby.-Mackenzie Lunt eight, What Makes a Baby is a book for every kind of family and every kind of kid. It is a twenty-first century children's picture book about conception, gestation, and birth, which reflects the reality of our modern time by being inclusive of all kinds of kids, adults, and families, regardless of how many people were involved, their orientation, gender and other identity, or family composition. Just as important, the story doesn't gender people or body parts, so most parents and families will find that it leaves room for them to educate their child without having to erase their own experience. Written by a certified sexuality educator, Cory Silverberg, and illustrated by award-winning Canadian artist Fiona Smyth, What Makes a Baby is as fun to look at as it is useful to read.

Geared to readers from preschool to age

On Haven, a six-mile long, half-mile-wide stretch of barrier island, Mira Banul and her Year-Rounder friends have proudly risen to every challenge. But then a superstorm defies all predictions and devastates the island, upending all logic and stranding Mira's mother and brother on the mainland. Nothing will ever be the same. A stranger appears in the wreck of Mira's home. A friend obsessed with vanishing disappears. As the mysteries deepen, Mira must find the strength to carry on—to somehow hold her memories in place while learning to trust a radically reinvented future. Gripping and poetic, This Is the Story of You is about the beauty of nature and the power of family, about finding hope in the wake of tragedy and recovery in the face of overwhelming loss.

After hand-lettering a book of quotes as a baby shower gift for her friend Joanna Goddard (of the popular lifestyle blog, Cup of Jo), Samantha Hahn was inspired to create an illustrated gift book and companion keepsake journal for other mothers to personalise. Stories for My Child features prompts for capturing the spectacular and quotidian moments of raising a child, along with thoughtfully selected quotes from contemporary and literary sources. Designed with Hahn's ethereal watercolors and chic hand lettering, the journal represents a sophisticated take on the parenting keepsake, and a treasure to pass along when the child grows up.
