The Budget Planner below can help you work out your income and expenses. Use it as a checklist to make sure you don't overlook any expenses. Why prepare a budget? Having a budget that details your income and expenditure will help you to maintain control of your finances and, if necessary, help to illustrate the problems you may be having with your creditors. It's true that your debt problems won't be solved by the fact that you have a budget alone. But beginning with this basic information about the reality of your current situation is essential.
