As Quies takes his new family to the streets of Colorado to start a new life, he has to come up with a plan that will take him to the top and fast. And have two down ass bitches on his side makes it a little bit easier. But everything is not so easy after all, Quies run into a little trouble while he was on the run.

An Eternal Love is the story of a young man, Paul E. Manual, who was found hiding in the home of a middle-aged couple in the early 1990s. After his arrival strange, wonderful and miraculous things begin to occur in the lives of the people in this small south Mississippi town. A horrendous crime some 40 years earlier hangs over The Pines Baptist Church. The church has ceased to grow in membership until Paul intervenes. In addition to the resolution of the long-ago event the story carries the readers through a series of decision-making issues a life-threatening accident, suicide, rape, marital concerns and in the midst of these and other problems Paul falls in love with the very stunning southern beauty Kimber Leigh Cook. However, Paul pays the supreme sacrifice in his dedication of bringing Christian love and appreciation into the lives of so many. An Eternal Love is a religious romance story of the twenty-first century. A must-read for women and men of all ages.

Award-winning radio personality Kim Stanley has been a fighter her entire life. In her first book, Thank You, Lord Jesus, she chronicles her battles and the victories God has given her. The adversity begins at age sixteen when doctors discovered she had stage IV Hodgkin's disease. With a projected less than nine months to live, she began a fight for her life that continues today.

Maggie Graham was born in Liverpool in 1950. Her love of animals was instilled into her almost from birth. In 1969 she became the youngest stewardess to be employed by Caledonian Airways. After spending some time in Mount Gambier, South Australia she returned to the UK where she qualified as a Dental Hygienist with the Army in Aldershot. She has lived up and down the country and has now done full circle, returning to her roots. She lives in North Liverpool with her third husband, Trevor and Coco and Mia, her two dogs.

with Phoenix's parents? Follow the events of how Phoenix's parents met as this book goes back to the past then to the present and back and forth again. This is predominantly a novel of romance with two intriguing love stories and explicit lovemaking scenes amid an underlying background of suspense, and a mystery that Phoenix feels compelled to solve, not realising the danger that her parents are in, all depicted through the eyes of the author, Phoenix Cartwright.

She was a supermodel, the daughter of an assassin, and an intelligence agent. Wealthy and beautiful, Kim Song Johnson had everything she'd ever wanted, but it meant nothing until she met the shy genius that was Ethan McHenry. Together they fight to save the country and the people they love from a madman who found the way to control any computer in the world. Of course, her parents might have something to say about that.

Janna Norton, a wealthy, beautiful, and intelligent girl, was living the dream life in progressive, fast-paced New York City. But Janna realized that she was missing true meaning in life. Knowing that she desperately needs this missing element in her life, Janna embarks on a heart-searching journey. Janna's dream world is shattered when her father leaves home. She is left feeling rejected, unwanted, and unloved. Unexpected circumstances bring Janna out of New York City and to Montana where she at last finds true meaning and purpose in life. Back in New York City, difficult challenges await Janna when her father returns, and the World Trade Center is attacked by terrorists. In the midst of chaos and destruction, Janna is faced with a life-changing decision and nothing will ever be the same again.

The Tribulation Cycle is a contemporary story of the classic, age-old, battle between good and evil. In the final days, according to the Book of Revelations, Satan will search the world for the bringer of destruction - the anti-Christ, to set humanity against itself and force it to chose between his lies and deception, or the difficult path of righteousness. Paul Reardon, the fiery young Evangelist of the Christian Soldier Crusade television network will soon undergo this very trial. The fate of his soul, as well as that of a generation will hang suspended by a thread as the dark forces compel him toward acceptance of the Satan's offer. Only one man in the world, the imprisoned Geoff Davis, knows Reardon's peril. He must escape his prison and Kimberly Tucker's life hasn't turned out the way she thought it would. A divorced mother of two, Kim resents her ex-husband for moving on with his life and living it up while she struggles to understand what went wrong. When her sons end up spending five weeks of summer vacation with their father, Kim's own father suggests a respite in the family vacation home on tiny Cedar Key Island. As Kim revisits her childhood memories and loves, she soon discovers that treasures in life are often buried, and mistakes--both past and present--become redeemable in God's hand. Readers will be swept away to an island retreat where they walk alongside Kim as she discovers that God's answers may not come easily, but they do come. Jason Townsend has issues with the older men in his life. His current boyfriend Jared is also his boss and, while the two get along wonderfully in the bedroom, their relationship at the office is tense and uncomfortable. Jason's relationship with his father is also strained -- they grew apart when Jason came out shortly after his parents divorced. The only person Jason has ever been able to rely on is his mother. So when she announces she's met Mr. Right, Jason is skeptical. When he meets her new boyfriend, handsome professor Paul Everett, he quickly realizes he and Paul have more in common than their connection to his mother. The two men had slept together the previous summer. Paul refuses to break things off with Jill, claiming he enjoys being with women and telling Jason their hook-up was a one-time thing that didn't mean much to him. Unwilling to tell his mother about his past with Paul, Jason stewes in silence as he watches his mother and Paul grow closer. At the same time, he finds himself becoming more and more attracted to Paul. When he can't stand it any longer, Jason makes a pass at his mother's boyfriend and is surprised his affections aren't spurned. Even though Jason finds himself falling in love with Paul, he knows he's betraying his mother and he hates himself for it. She's always been his staunchest ally, and sleeping with her boyfriend abuses the trust between them. Can Jason love a man who's also deceiving his mother? When he's forced to choose between Paul and his mother, the decision isn't as easy as it seems.

Colleen Deering. She'll do anything for her sister, Sheila. And if her gift takes up nine months of her life and entails morning sickness and stretch marks, well, what are sisters for? Because what Sheila wants—more than anything in this world—is a baby. And it will be Sheila's baby; Colleen has assured her sister of that. She's doing this for Sheila. Michael Delaney. Handsome and reserved, he's Colleen's brother-in-law, Sheila's husband. He, too, wants a baby—with all his heart. When Colleen offers to be a surrogate for his wife, he's stunned. But Michael eventually accepts the idea—and he's deeply grateful for Colleen's gift of love. Tragically, Sheila never even gets a chance to hold the baby. In their sorrow, Colleen and Michael turn to each other, only to discover an unacknowledged attraction—a dangerous attraction. Dangerous, because they both want Sheila's child.... This is a true memoir about life's second chances, survival after losing a mate, and finding love the second time. Jim and Connie Morris are successful, socially active and popular. They are two of the top amateur golfers in Missouri and California. They and their children live celebrated lives, but then tragedy comes; softly at first, but then it crescendos: Their son James is stricken with MS, then Connie dies, followed by Jim's mother, and Payne Stewart, to whom Jim is a surrogate father. Jim hovers on the brink of despair. Elsewhere in America Lorna Kanehl is also suffering a loss. She is the former wife of popular Springfield, Missouri baseball great Rod Kanehl, the first New York Met ever to hit a grand slam out of the Polo Grounds. Do not love this world nor the things it offers you, for when you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you... 1 John 2:15 - 17, NLT

Detective Keith Kendelhart faces the first homicide case of his career in a small Ontario town and soon finds a nest of intertwined stories of intrigue, murder, a family torn apart by sibling rivalry, and mafia connections. He comes to realize the crime he is investigating has ties to an unsolved murder from the past, and as a man of faith, he becomes determined to find the answer that will solve everything. What Detective Kendelhart does not know is that he will find help from God along the way, as well as support from some federal agents, an old detective, and a Christian layperson. As the story unfolds, the stories of the two murder victims come to light, and it becomes clear that both have led very different types of lives. While one had a love for money and things of this world, the other took a purer path and will find

The Pony Pals are faced with the challenge of helping a friend deal with her pony going blind. They each learn a lesson about taking care of a pony and the importance of telling the truth.

The book begins with the kidnapping of Tony Denton's sixteen year old niece at a car wash and his involvement with the police as they try to locate her. Things start going wrong when police officers are pulled from the kidnapping case to work as decoys on a sting in the red light district, arresting prostitutes and their "johns".

Tony loses it as he rants and raves against management of the police force in his hometown. When people tell Tony to stop griping and do something about it he reluctantly runs for sheriff, and to his surprise he wins the office. His only promise on the campaign trail had been that he would not allow any of his officers to be involved in arresting prostitutes or their "johns's", nor would he allow an officer to arrest anyone using drugs, which causes an uproar within the religious community. Tony is so successful at taking his police officers away from these two areas and putting them to work solving the brutal murders and rapes that take place in his town that within the first two years the

Won ' t You Apologize? also addresses the compelling needs of the injured party—the one who has been hurt by someone who won ' t apologize, tell the truth, or feel remorse. Lerner explains what drives both the non-apologizer and the over-apologizer, as well as why the people who do the worst things are the least able to own up. She helps the injured person resist pressure to forgive too easily and challenges the popular notion that forgiveness is the only path to peace of mind. With her trademark humor and wit, Lerner offers a joyful and sanity-saving guide to setting things right.
