Kids are a gift of God, and they have the inherent skills and abilities to enthrall their parents with what they can achieve. This is possible only if the parents display enough courage to let their children work and operate independently. One of these activities that can help parents groom their children in an organized, disciplined, safe, secure, and creative way, is . . . . Woodworking!

respect for tools, and respect for a hands-on experience that will bring pleasure, self confidence, and real competence to anyone who gets involved. Like juggling and other hand-eye coordination skills, learning to use tools, to measure carefully, to cut accurately, to smooth thoroughly, and to bring a woodworking project to completion can have implications for a child's well-being, concentration, self confidence, work ethic and patience that will affect all other areas of life, including classroom learning. Not to mention the sheer joy involved in working together- parent and child. There are few things more rewarding than making something yourself – and being able to use it

Do you know a child who wants to learn how to build things with wood, but you don't know the first thing about woodworking? No problem! "Woodshop 101 for Kids" is written as a woodworking curriculum for your kids, it's not just another book that has woodworking projects for kids. Each lesson is laid out step by step so it's easy to understand. Here's what you get: * Fun projects that kids will want to build. * Projects are designed to build confidence. * Every project has a "Things You Need" box so you'll know to have on hand. * A cutlist is provided that tells exactly what size to cut each piece of wood. * All the head scratching has been done for you. * All you and your kids have to do is follow along, it's that simple! In "Woodshop 101 for Kids" Your Kids Will Learn... * 21 woodworking lessons that teach the basics of woodworking. * A simple way to read a tape measure. * How to swing a hammer correctly so nails aren't bent and fingers don't get smashed! * How to saw a straight line (most adults can't do this)! * How to set up and throughout the book. There are also many graphs, illustrations and definition blocks that will help avoid any confusion about what the lesson is teaching. Why Woodworking for Kids is so IMPORTANT! * It builds self-esteem * It builds self-confidence * It builds a sense of accomplishment * It builds creativity * It builds stronger relationships between you and your children! QUESTIONS: - What's the age range for "Woodshop 101 for Kids"? * A general guideline is 7-13 yrs/old, but there's much more than age to consider. Reading ability, motor skills, and attention span are really what's important when trying to decide if your child is old enough. I've had 5 year old kids do very well with the material in this book (with much more supervision of course).

Online Library Easy Carpentry Projects For Children (Dover Children's Activity Books)

the family can enjoy for a long time. These projects are all perfect for kids. They offer a range of difficulties. You can create a progression of projects so that if your kids really like working with their hands, you can move from one to the next with increasing difficulty. Some are very simple and feature only wood, paint and glue. Some require some power tools. That also means they also require a range of adult supervision. The great thing is that at their simplest, kids can focus their creativity on the grounds that there are no wrong answers. Each one has its own different needs in terms of supplies and fasteners. They also include how-to instructions and photos of

"Woodworking is not about what children make - it's about the changes that are made within the child" - Pete Moorhouse

Are you a parent looking for ways to engage with your kids, bond with them, and have fun? Are you looking for ways to help turn off the smart phones, tablets, and television and still have your kids and teens occupied with a fun activity? In an ever-changing society, there aren't a whole lot of activities that are geared towards children, teens, and parents. Marketing strategies have become so specific that they target the exact age ranges.

Fortunately, if you take a step back from "modern" society, you can get involved in some age-old crafts and practical skills that are fun for the whole family!

Woodworking is such a craft. Not only are there projects that range in difficulty for different skill and age groups, but there are some projects that can be completed by two people, giving you a chance to interact and bond with your children face to face.

Without the input of noise and visual stimulation from screen entertainment, you and your children can talk to each other and create something together.
