Calabrese, the enormous quantity of narrative now being produced has led to a new situation:
everything has already been said, and
been written. The only way of avoiding saturation has been to turn to a poetics of repetition. The author shows that pleasure in texts is now produced by tiny variations, and a taken on a central importance that would have been unthinkable only a few years ago. In
