Eve Collins is an independent woman, a little impulsive, and her eternal struggle for women's rights keeps moving further away from its original concept, which intimidates all men who approach her. She is the public relations assistant of the Fashion View magazine, and, in addition, the person in charge of all those involved in the campaign "Be Yourself", among them Liam Woods, the vocalist and lead guitarrist of X69, one of the most famous bands in the country which has lately been on everyone's lips due to Liam's imprudent behaviour with alcohol and women. Eve will have to set the vocalist's behaviour straight and clean up the name of the band, however, in this process, she will learn some things that may change her own destiny and, why not, bond her and Liam together. Author note: This book is the second of the Sisters Collins Trilogy. Each book of this trilogy is self-conclusive and they can be read in any order, but if you don't like spoilers, I advice you to read them in the right order :) Stefania Gil is also the author of other novels in Romance and the subgenre of Paranormal Romance: The Origin - Special Abilites Division SAD 1, Archangelos Series, My last: Yes, I do, Presagies, Sinchrony, among others.* Leah and Jonathan were really in love. Engaged and planning their wedding. One day, though, when Leah got home after a long day, she found that Jonathan and his whole family had left without explaining a thing. All they left was an empty space full of questions that remained unanswered and a despair that appeared to want to accompany her all her life. She decided to move to the Big Apple, assuming the city would allow her to start over. But no. Every year, around the same time everything had happened, Leah relived every moment of her suffering. As the years went by, she understood that she wouldn't be able to find happiness anywhere and she decided to go back to Arlington with her family. Her best friend Ellie, who she had known since they were babies, suggested they set up in business together. She also realizes that Ellie wants to hitch her up with her older brother, Ryan. It was when she was packing up to move that she had an accident that provided the vision she had been seeking for so long. For a brief moment she saw her love, after so many years. She recognized him and then, in the blink of an eye, she lost him again. Was it Leah's imagination, tricked by love, that was showing her an image of Jonathan? Would she have to resign herself to never finding answers and give in to Ryan's offers to be happy? Or was she right, and her beloved Jonathan was coming back to her after all those years to return to what fate had forced them to interrupt many years beforehand?
