While Sarah is penning these words: 1. Sarah Emma Boswell. with sound mind. on zhr day April 2, 1900, do solemnly bequesth my undying love and devotion to- her childhood frienc Andrew, whom she plans to marry when she grows up. her father is downstairs in his study arranging her marriage to a man who will save him from financial ruin. On her wedding day, the day after her fourteenth birthday a month later, she is taken to Wyndmeyer House, a mansion shrouded in mystery. There endures an abusive, controlling relationship that ultimately ends in tragedy five years later. Her determination to survive is a testament to the strength and courage of a young woman in early nineteen hundred faced with adversity she had no control over.
