Groomed for a place at a Big Name School since their obsessed, status-conscious helicopter parents passed out cigars at the Stockstill General Hospital Neonatal Unit, the privileged students of Pembrocton College Preparatory are ratcheting up the stakes in the race to get into the nation's most prestigious colleges. The PCP juniors are gloating, jubilant at the rumor that the valedictorian presumptive has received a B on her report card, a grade that will relegate her to in-state hell. Her heir apparent, a three-generation Yale legacy, is the sole mourner at the demise of her future—if only because her thoughtless academic lapse is going to derail his plans to attend MIT. Across town, in the graffiti-covered halls of Stockstill High School, the students slink to class, praying that they arrive without a knife wound—and dream of ivy-covered walls. And with the help of a take-no-prisoners principal and an enterprising parent, the students at SHS dare to encroach shamelessly on territory normally reserved for their wealthy private school rivals. Join the fray as a memorable cast of characters engages in the latest rage in extracurricular activities: college admissions as a blood sport. Laugh out loud funny, The Applicants lampoons the heights we scale—and the depths to which we sink—to get into the “right” college. The Indispensible Guide That No Student Can Afford to getting an interview, and the required and preferred classes AA schools are looking for. You'll find out the ideal institution to take your classes to obtain the highest grades, as well as how to give yourself the best chance of getting into AA school even if you don't have a great GPA. Part 3: The GRE & MCAT - After that, we go over both the GRE and MCAT, detailing the best exam to choose when given the choice by AA schools. The CASper exam is also covered in this section. Part 4: Work, Volunteer, & Shadowing Hours - Then we go over how to gain work, volunteer, and shadowing hours to obtain a more well rounded application. This includes how to find anesthesia providers who will allow you to shadow, as well as the types of jobs and volunteer experience AA schools are looking for. Part 5: The Application Process - This section goes into great detail on the application process, showing you what and how to put into each section of the CASAA application with detailed text and pictures. It also goes over where to get reference letters, how to craft your personal statement, and an excellent free website you can use to add a polished resume to your application. Part 6: The Interview - When the time comes you need to know how to handle the interview. Unlike what AA schools tell students, there are right and wrong ways to answer the interview questions. This section goes over what students can expect during the interview process, the most common questions you will be asked during your AA interview, and how to improve your interviews skills to give you the best chance of getting an acceptance letter. As a complimentary bonus, you'll receive the complete AA school checklist. CASAA and test companies provide no refunds to students, and your CASAA application is not editable after it has been processed. For this reason, you need to make sure your application is complete before hitting that submit button. This checklist form does just that, outlining everything you need to include in CASAA when applying to AA schools. This checklist is not available to the general public, and only available to buyers of this book. If you want give yourself the
