

Fifty years before The Conjuring, Paranormal State, Ghost Hunters, Insidious and Most Haunted, there was Hans Holzer—a man known as the “Father of the Paranormal.” Holzer pioneered ghost-hunting methods still used today, and brought ghosts and ghost hunting into popular culture in the second half of the twentieth century. Ghost Hunter presented some of the first-ever case studies of haunting investigations, taken from Holzer’s own practice in the New York City area—ranging from Civil War-era spirits to the tormented ghosts of murder victims. For devoted ghost-hunting aficionados curious about the practice’s history, there is no better place to start than the first book Hans Holzer wrote, Ghost Hunter. This is the classic 1963 book that launched his publishing career and gained him international fame. The prestige edition of the classic, trail-blazing work on ghost hunting will intrigue new fans and longtime devotees alike—part of the new Tarcher Supernatural Library. The first three titles released in Tarcher’s Supernatural Library are Ghost Hunter (by Hans Holzer), Romance of Sorcery (by Sax Rohmer) and Isis in America (by Henry Steel Olcott).

Embark on the investigations of the team from well-known haunted places such as the Sallie House in Atchison, Kansas; Randolph County Asylum in Winchester, Indiana; Mineral Springs Hotel in Alton, Illinois; and Summerwind in Land O’ Lakes, Wisconsin. Also included in the book are chilling stories of haunted locations that are not as familiar, such as, Groppi’s in Bay View, Wisconsin or The Preston Residence in Marquette, Kansas. Hear the stories from The Sheboygan Insane Asylum, which had never been investigated before, so when the Fox Valley Ghost Hunters began investigating, the spirits wanted to be finally heard. From the Chapel, a voice says, “That One,” right as Craig is scratched by an unseen force. Disembodied voices, slamming doors and shadow people are only the beginning of what the team has experienced at the Asylum. The Barclay Cemetery is a beautiful, peaceful cemetery where only children are buried. The team has visited this cemetery on many occasions in the daylight. A late-night drive to the cemetery however offered a whole different experience. Something lurked in the trees across the street watching the teams every move. As fear forced them to leave, they soon found out, that whatever was there followed them back to the hotel. Experience the investigations of the Fox Valley Ghost Hunters as they journey inside these haunted places and show you what it is like to be a ghost hunter. Feel what they felt from fear to excitement, and some may receive answers that they have been seeking for many years.*

The Atlantic Paranormal Society, also known as T.A.P.S., is the brainchild of two plumbers by day, paranormal investigators by night: Jason Haves and Grant Wilson. Their hair-raising investigations, fueled by their unique abilities and a healthy dose of scientific method, have made them the subject of a hit TV show: the SCI FI Channel’s Ghost Hunters. Now their experiences are in print for the first time, as Jason and Grant recount for us, with the help of veteran author Michael Jan Friedman, the stories of some of their most memorable investigations. The men and women of T.A.P.S. pursue ghosts and other supernatural phenomena with the most sophisticated scientific equipment available -- from thermal-imaging cameras to electromagnetic-field recorders to digital thermometers -- and the results may surprise you. Featuring both cases depicted on Ghost Hunters and earlier T.A.P.S. adventures never told before now, this funny, fascinating, frightening collection will challenge everything you thought you knew about the spirit world.
