The fun activities will give young children plenty of practice in pen-control - an essential skill they must learn before starting to form letters and numbers. With bright illustrations and friendly animal characters, this lively book is a perfect way for children to develop their fine motor skills. The fun activities encourage pen control, and there are lines, loops, swirls and trails to trace or copy, all shapes children will need to make when they come to write their first letters. Titles in the increasingly popular Early Years series are perfect for children aged 3 to 5 years. They support the 'Early Years Foundation Stage' framework that is used in nurseries and schools. A fold-out page at the back of the book includes notes for grown-ups, tips on how to achieve the correct pen hold and ideas for lines and patterns to draw. Durable wipe-clean pages and special pen allow children to complete the activities again and again until they feel confident. Wipe-clean pages, stylish illustrations and a wipe-clean pen combine to provide endless opportunities for children to practise reading and writing easy three-letter words. Formations for both upper and lower-case letters are shown, and there is advice about helping children learn to read and write at the Usborne Quicklinks website. The new compact format is ideal to slip into a bag when out and about and the special wipe-clean pen is very satisfying to write with, and easy to wipe off the shiny pages. Wipe-clean books are brilliant for developing essential pen control skills as children practise letter formation and then write whole word labels for each picture.
