ACCA Performance Management Practice and Revision Kit

The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) is the global body for professional accountants. With over 100 years of providing world-class accounting and finance qualifications, the ACCA has significantly raised its international profile in recent years and now supports a BSc (Hons) in Applied Accounting and an MBA. BPP Learning Media is an ACCA Official Publisher. F7 is a demanding paper covering all the fundamentals of financial reporting. It has five main sections: 1. The conceptual framework of accounting 2. The regulatory framework 3. Preparation of financial statements which conform with IFRS 4. Preparation of consolidated financial statements 5. Analysis and interpretation of financial statementsF7 builds on knowledge from F3, or old paper 1.1. New topics introduced at this level are consolidated financial statements, construction contracts, financial instruments and leases. International is now the ACCA main stream. We also provide materials for the F7 UK variant. The most important factor in passing F7 will be lots of targeted question practice. The questions in our kit cover all areas of the F7 syllabus. The questions are laid out in sections which match the text chapters. All sections have past exam questions and some also have preparation questions which ease you into the topic. This helps you to organise your revision. You can review the text chapter, and then do the kit questions on that chapter. Our solutions are detailed and also give you advice on how to approach the question and how to get the easy marks. BPP Learning Media is the publisher of choice for many ACCA students and tuition providers worldwide. Join them and plug into a world of expertise in ACCA exams.

BPP Learning Media is the sole Platinum Approved provider of ACCA content. Our examiner-reviewed Study Texts and Practice & Revision Kits, and our interactive study tools will provide you with the up-to-date material you need for exam success.

This book covers the principles, concepts, techniques and practical tools of financial accounting in supporting overall business decisions. Using a comprehensive theoretical framework, this book is enhanced by practical examples, exercises, chapter summaries and complex cases in each of the eleven chapters. With the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and their specific Conceptual Framework as the baseline approach, this book also highlights Romanian regulation and practice specifically. Despite the globalisation efforts, this book demonstrates that there are still discrepancies and cultural challenges and will be of interest to students and academics of financial accounting.

Loftus, Financial Reporting builds on the strengths of Loftus, Understanding Australian Accounting Standards and Leo, Company Accounting, bringing the strongest elements of those two respected titles into one combined volume. This 35 chapter text is designed to cover all of the 2nd and 3rd year financial accounting topics typically taught across two units, including accounting regulation, the conceptual framework, applying accounting standards, disclosures and group accounting. It explains accounting principles and practice to students in a clear, understandable way and provides both a conceptual insight as well as a practical application of the various accounting standards. The author team is comprised of a group of academics who are actively teaching in this area incl. Janice Loftus (Uni of Adelaide), Noel Boys (Melb), Belinda Luke (QUT), Sorin Daniliuc (ANU), Hong Ang (Deakin) and Karen Byrnes (USQ). The authors have brought their collective teaching insights to bear on the learning design of the text and accompanying online course the result of which is a contemporary teaching and learning package that will engage and empower students to study independently and achieve greater success in these challenging units.
