Just for a moment imagine yourself the spouse or even the parent of someone in prison. What images come to your mind? In her story, the author challenges us to think outside of our own mindsets. Through the writer's eyes you will see glimpses of what it is really like from the outside looking in. It is her hope that as you read you will not only recognize things that have "imprisoned" you but that you will be set free from those things.

Stephen: I call him Anthony, though everyone else calls him Tony. Why? Because I know there's more to this rude, obnoxious, sullen, sexy man. Anthony totally mesmerizes me. He's like a drug habit I can't quit. I'm a priest. I should know better. We are friends. Or were. I guess he felt safe with me since I'm a priest. But when he learned that my church is welcoming to gays and that it even has gay priests, he backed off. I haven't been totally honest with him about my feelings, but I'm sure he senses them ... Anthony: I like sex, but making love? That's not in the cards for me. If a guy wants more from me than wild, sweaty sex ... I move on. There's plenty of others to choose from. I don't let people in. It never works out. Never. I made a mistake opening up to Stephen when he moved into Mockingbird Place. Why do I like him so much? He's a priest. Father Stephen. And he believes in things I see as fairy tales. I have my reasons. I've seen the darkest parts of humanity, and I didn't see any divine light breaking through.
