Amazing Grace

God's Amazing Grace

(Guitar Chord Songbook). The Guitar Chord Songbook series features books with complete lyrics and chord symbols above the lyrics for dozens of great songs. Each song also includes chord grids at the top of every page and the first note of the melody for easy reference. These books are perfect for people who don't read music but want to strum chords and sing, and are equally ideal for more advanced, music-reading electric or acoustic guitarists who don't feel like wading through note-for-note notation. This edition features 80 contemporary worship favorites, including: Amazed * Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone) * At the Cross * Beautiful One * Everlasting God * How Can I Keep from Singing * I Am Free * Let God Arise * Let My Words Be Few (I'll Stand in Awe of You) * Made to Worship * Mighty to Save * Nothing but the Blood * Offering * Sing to the King * Today Is the Day * Your Name * and more.

Jesus, Lover of My Soul by Charles Wesley, first published in 1878, is a rare manuscript, the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world. This book is a reproduction of that original, which has been scanned and cleaned by state-of-the-art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation. Restoration Editors' mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life. Some smudges, annotations or unclear text may still exist, due to permanent damage to the original work. We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction, allowing a new generation to appreciate it.

Lovers of acoustic-flavored, guitar driven worship will want to consider this collection of songs from the likes of Chris Tomlin, Matt Redman and other contemporary worship leaders. The Allens weave several of the songs into blended-worship medleys based on particular themes (e.g., "How Can I Keep from Singing" is joined with the hymn "I Will Sing the Wondrous Story" and the chorus "I Could Sing of Your Love Forever"). Other nice features include simple but effective narration, rendered by the worship leader (with two optional storytellers). Keeping the narration short (and utilizing familiar songs) allows for the collection to be presented more as a worship concert than a performance, therefore fostering more audience participation than is often the case in a choral musical. The production notes also give instructions for an optional communion service that can be incorporated into the mix.

Popular Praise contains the best songs in contemporary Christian music, complete with lyrics, arranged for the intermediate pianist. Helpful fingering, dynamics, phrasing, chord symbols, and pedal marks assist in making a satisfying musical experience. Titles: *Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone) * Beautiful One * Blessed Be Your Name * Come, Now Is the Time to Worship * Forever * Here I Am to Worship * How Great Is Our God * In Christ Alone (My Hope Is Found) * We Fall Down * You Are My All in All. "We Fall Down" and "You Are My All in All" are Federation Festivals 2014-2016 selections.*

Jesus, Lover of My Soul

This collection contains selections written by Chris Tomlin, Steven Curtis Chapman, Paul Balchoe, and other favorite contemporary Christian songwriters. The easily accessible arrangements include approximate performance times to aid planning. Titles: *Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone) * Come, Now Is the Time to Worship * God of Wonders * Here I Am to Worship * How Great Is Our God * I Will Be Here * In Christ Alone * Open the Eyes of My Heart * You Are My King (Amazing Love) * You Deliver Me.*

He was chosen meekly to die an inner death but had one gift hidden in his meek voice, the gift of editing to starkness the quest that had entombed his captured soul. Now the world can hear this child's plea as he brings to life the Holy Grail Quest. Born into a culture of sexual ignorance and denial, he is unable to realize his deepest dreams due to inexplicable fears and a deep sense of shame. His life however is held together by a sense of the divine experience, born from a love of singing. He is driven to succeed and travels through 36 countries over 21 years. Eventually realizing he is a captive prisoner he turns for help to a little known African plant. He then watches in horror as his soul releases itself and begins a journey of reclamation. We see through the authors naked self the underlying factors which give rise to modern Ireland as he struggles and ultimately succeeds to free himself from their chains - the Irish psyche and its history are laid bare. This, the first of three books, paves the way for an eclectic look at spirituality in the modern world in the context of African Spirituality, Western History and the banished Child within and offers a powerfully effective old way adapted to the 21st century to heal the hurt and pain that lies in all of us.

(Piano/Vocal/Guitar Artist Songbook). 15 songs from one of the leading artists and composers in contemporary worship music, including the favorites: *Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone) * Be Glorified * Holy Is the Lord * How Can I Keep from Singing * How Great Is Our God * Indescribable * Not to Us * Take My Life * We Fall Down * and more.*

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found, was blind but now I see. To totally understand these words that have been sung for many years, we have to truly comprehend the freedom that was, and still is, given as Jesus gave His life on the cross for all our sins. My Chains Are Gone - An Easter Musical of Freedom, walks us through the events of Jesus' last days as He continued to meet the needs of the people around Him. Some came for healing, words of comfort and forgiveness, but all came to have the weight of their bondage lifted so that they could be set free. My Chains are Gone is a powerful 45-minute musical for Easter created by Dave Clark and J. Daniel Smith. Filled with top Christian songs such as This Is How it Feels to Be Free, Amazing Grace (My Chains are Gone) and I Am Free, along with several dynamic songs, your choir and congregation will love singing about the freedom that we have been given through the blood of Jesus Christ. Each arrangement within this dynamic musical is easily adaptable to large and small choirs using a live orchestra or CD accompaniment track.

Christianne Ashton Henderson experienced a serious accident but was able to maintain her faith as she received God's amazing healing, grace and mercy. She had been singing "Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone), almost every minute for a week before the fall. The messages and serious worship of this song and all of the Chris Tomlin's songs led her closer to Jesus Christ than she had ever been. Each song was words that God was speaking to lift her up and encourage her in these down times. As she listened to the inspirational music, the Lord led her to write the words of My Chains Are Gone, His Mercy Reigns, and follow His will in her life. She continues to worship Him each day with the astounding Chris Tomlin songs. Christianne hopes that My Chains Are Gone, His Mercy Reigns will help others see the blessing that God bestows upon us and that they will draw closer to Him, listening to the calling of the songs that are quoted in each chapter. She continues to volunteer in her church, St. James UMC in Montgomery, Alabama. She has been a resident of Montgomery since beginning at Huntingdon College in 1959. She and her husband, Lester, married after their sophomore year. She graduated in 1963 and taught English and French in the public school system. She became very interested in Special Education and earned a Master's Degree in Special Education and Administration at Auburn University Montgomery. Her later service in Montgomery Public Schools included working as a psychometrist, teaching special education, supervising special education teachers and serving as a principal. Final retirement in 2008 was difficult but she has enjoyed life since that time, focusing on God's purpose for her and spending time with her wonderful eight grandchildren and great grandchild."

Don Besig and Nancy Price weave the Swedish "Children of the Heavenly Father" melody with a remarkably fresh text. This inspiring selection includes a flute counter melody that soars above the flowing piano accompaniment and serves as a powerful reminder that God's guidance and strength give us the faith to carry on.

What happens when we praise God? What are the benefits of praising Him? Do you know what praise actually means? In Holy Roar, Chris Tomlin and Darren Whitehead share a fresh perspective from the worship practices of the ancient world. They take readers on a praise journey that answers questions and provides valuable insight. After reading Holy Roar, you will: Grow an understanding of praise with Darren's unique insights. Gain a deeper understanding of how to worship. Be inspired as Chris shares how those insights take shape in the stories behind some of your favorite worship songs, including "How Great Is Our God," "We Fall Down," and "Good Good Father." Holy Roar is for: Readers of all ages interested in growing their faith Pastors, worship leaders, and small group teachers leading believers In the ancient world, something extraordinary happened when God's people gathered to worship Him. It was more than just singing; it was a declaration, a proclamation, a time to fully embody praise to God for who He is and what He has done. In fact, in the Psalms, seven Hebrew words are translated into the English word praise, each of which represents a different aspect of what it means to truly praise God.

Autistic people and musical individuals often have perfect pitch, a gift they were born with. The musical gift may be accompanied with learning differences such as reading comprehension problems, trouble with mathematics, and significant difficulties in learning how to read music. This book was written by a music therapist and an autistic researcher, and is endorsed by leading experts in the field of autism and special-needs education. The Rancor Method is presented as page-by-page instructions to be implemented with readily-available method books so that every piano teacher can follow it and do well by their students. "By focusing on the abilities rather than the deficits of people with learning, perceptual, motor, and other differences, Kupferstein and Rancor have developed a revolutionary piano pedagogy that will empower individuals with autism and other differences by unleashing the power of what can be done." Stephen M. Shore, Ed.D. Internationally known professor, consultant, speaker, and author on issues related to the autism spectrum and special education. Contemporary worship music shapes the way evangelical Christians understand worship itself. Author Monique M. Ingalls argues that participatory worship music performances have brought into being new religious social constellations, or "modes of congregating". Through exploration of five of these modes—concert, conference, church, public, and networked congregations—Singing the Congregation reinvigorates the analytic categories of "congregation" and "congregational music." Drawing from theoretical models in ethnology and congregational studies, Singing the Congregation reconceives the congregation as a fluid, contingent social constellation that is actively performed into being through communal practice—in this case, the musically-structured participatory activity known as "worship." "Congregational music-making" is thereby recast as a practice capable of weaving together a religious community both inside and outside local institutional churches. Congregational music-making is not only a means of expressing local concerns and constituting the local religious community; it is also a powerful way to identify with far-flung individuals, institutions, and networks that comprise this global religious community. The interactions among the congregations reveal widespread conflicts over religious authority, carrying far-ranging implications for how evangelicals position themselves relative to other groups in North America and beyond.

Inspired by the #1 hit worship song by Chris Tomlin, this precious story teaches children about our Father God's unconditional love and acceptance and that the only gift God wants is our hearts. Grammy Award-winning music artist, Chris Tomlin, and Pat Barrett (Housfires) team up to tell the story of a little bear named Tucker whose life is forever changed when he learns just how great the King's love is for him. When Tucker's friends need help, he journeys to see the King who lives in a castle where the door is always open. Along the way, Tucker encounters a variety of humorous animals filled with ideas about what the King is like. Then finally, he meets the King who runs to him with open arms. This read-aloud storybook for 4- to 8-year-olds: Shows young children the character of God through a fun adventure story Teaches that God loves His children no matter what Encourages kids to have a relationship with their Heavenly Father and to ask for His help in prayer Sparks family discussions about who God is Makes a calming bedtime read with its warm message of God's caring heart With whimsical art created by Lorna Hussey, this inspiring story will leave children, young and old, reassured that God is a good, good Father, and they are loved by Him.
