The 30 recipes I have included in this cookbook are simple to make but versatile enough that they can be dressed up or down with the addition of one or two garnishes. There is enough of variety available in the following appetizers for any holiday meal at any time of the year. Some recipes included here require the use of a slow cooker, so if you don't have one, then you can adjust the recipe for a large stock pot or even a frying pan. You should be able to find the equivalent cooking times online for the crockpot appetizers. I hope that you find an appetizer that will complement your meal and theme of choice and your guests rave about your excellent hosting skills for years to come.
