Inspired by the vivid colors of impressionist art and infused with an extraordinary love of life, The Traveling Artist follows painter and writer Missy Dunaway's voyages over five years, spanning four continents, intimately rendered by hand into the pages of her journals. As a Fulbright Fellow, solo-traveler, and artist-in-residence, Missy traverses a variety of terrain, from urban Istanbul to Morocco's Sahara Desert to bucolic Iceland. Gorgeous paintings instantly transport readers through the hand and eye of an artist with the spirit of a poet. Complementing her artwork is a special introduction that reflects on the development of her process as a traveling artist, along with explanations of her artistic techniques, including how to best capture fleeting moments while on the move. Every reader--whether armchair or voyager--will journey with Missy and witness as her sketchbook becomes a beloved travel companion. Readers just might be inspired to take the same road, paintbrush in hand.

Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education

An Illustrated Journey

Blue Water Edition

This volume emphasizes the economic aspects of art and culture, a relatively new field that poses inherent problems for economics, with its quantitative concepts and tools. Building bridges across disciplines such as management, art history, art philosophy, sociology, and law, editors Victor Ginsburgh and David Throsby assemble chapters that yield new perspectives on the supply and demand for artistic services, the contribution of the arts sector to the economy, and the roles that public policies play. With its focus on culture rather than the arts, Ginsburgh and Throsby bring new clarity and definition to this rapidly growing area. Presents coherent summaries of major research in art and culture, a field that is inherently difficult to characterize with finance tools and concepts Offers a rigorous description that avoids common problems associated with art and culture scholarship Makes details about the economics of art and culture accessible to scholars in fields outside economics

A Visual Journal

The Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education marks a milestone in the field of art education. Sponsored by the National Art Education Association and assembled by an internationally known group of art educators, this 36-chapter handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the remarkable progress that has characterized this field in recent decades. Organized into six sections, it profiles and integrates the following elements of this rapidly emerging field: history, policy, learning, curriculum and instruction, assessment, and competitive perspectives. Because the scholarly foundations of art education are relatively new and loosely coupled, this handbook provides students, and policymakers (both inside and outside the field) an invaluable snapshot of its current boundaries and rapidly growing influence. In a nutshell, it provides much needed definition and intellectual respectability to a field that as recently as 1960 was more firmly rooted in the world of arts and crafts than in scholarly research.

Over 1,000 journal pages presented in one beautiful full-color book Journals offer their makers a safe place to dream, doodle, and reinvent themselves. They offer viewers rich, visual inspiration. There is a fascination with these revealing and often beautiful explorations of self and exploration and personal expression. Journals offer a tantalizing, voyeuristic view of an interior life. This would be the first book to offer examples of over 1000 journal pages in one eye-catching, visual format, and would attract a wide swathe of artists who fully embrace and experiment with this medium. Journaling has seeped into popular culture in a big way and this collection provides a wide array of techniques and themes to inspire and inform mixed media and journaling enthusiasts.

Unleash your inner artist with a year's worth of creative inspiration Art journaling isn't about achieving perfection but about embracing the creative process every day to create something that comes from your heart. The One-Year Art Journal is filled with 365 fun and inspiring prompts that help you relieve stress, gain self-awareness, and express your creativity in new ways--no matter your skill level. Engaging exercises challenge your artistic side with prompts for doodling, coloring, drawing, writing, and other forms of creative expression. No special tools or materials necessary--Most of these prompts require pencil, pen, crayons, or very occasionally paint, but you can use other mediums if you have those on hand or feel inspired to try something new. A focus on mindfulness--Discover how enjoying the creative process can help you unwind instead of stress over the outcome. Unwind and improve your artistic skills with help from this soothing guided journal.
