those "cuts" subsequently shape their lives. (Cuts are hurts, experiences, incurred). Unfortunately, people will inevitably incur hurts and pains in life, which most are beyond their own control. One simply cannot control what happens to them at the hands of another. People hurt other people. It's not so much the hurt that causes the problem, but more so the effects of the hurt. Oftentimes, people ignore the hurt. They try to live their lives as if the hurt never occurred. Many are oblivious to their deep hurt because they've mastered the art of disguising the pain. The problem ensues when the severely wounded people interact with others, then they subsequently inflict others with the residual hurt that they've been harboring. Because of this, many fail to realize that they've been "cut" and are in need of healing. The purpose of this book is to aid in identifying and healing cuts from one's life (including their past, present, or possibly their future), as these cuts will affect one's life in some regard.

Oftentimes, people need healing to recover from some trauma or tragedy that they've endured, yet they're too afraid to ask for help. Many internalize their feelings, never properly articulating their mental anguish, ultimately forsaking the need and opportunity to heal. It's the lack of healing that causes people to hurt others or live unhappy lives. This book
