A Paris Life, A Baltimore Treasure

I am 27 and have never killed a man but I know the face of death as if heirloom country memorizes murder as lullaby —from “For Fahd” Textured with the sights sounds of growing up in East New York in the nineties, to school on the South S Chicago, all the way to the olive groves of Palestine, My Mother Is a Freedom Fi Aja Monet’s ode to mothers, daughters, and sisters—the tiny gods who fight to world. Complemented by striking cover art from Carrie Mae Weems, these stunn poems tackle racism, sexism, genocide, displacement, heartbreak, and grief, but a love, motherhood, spirituality, and Black joy. Praise for Aja Monet: “[Monet] is the definition of an artist.” —Harry Belafonte “In Paris, she walked out onto the sta opened her mouth and spoke. At the first utterance I heard that rare something this is special and knew immediately that Aja Monet was one of the Ones who v the sound of the ages. She brings depth of voice to the voiceless, and through h a powerful song.” —Carrie Mae Weems Of Cuban-Jamaican descent, Aja Monet is internationally established poet, performer, singer, songwriter, educator, and hur rights advocate. Monet is also the youngest person to win the legendary Nuyori Poet’s Café Grand Slam title.
