Student Unit Guides are perfect for revision. Each guide is written by an examiner and explains the unit requirements, summarises the relevant unit content and includes a series of specimen questions and answers. A Content Guidance section combines an overview of the specific unit or module and the key terms and concepts, with an examiner's interpretation so that students understand precisely what they need to understand and learn, the skills required and the potential pitfalls. A Question and Answer section provides graded answers, typically A and C, to questions which have been set to reflect the style of the unit. ALL responses are accompanied by commentaries which highlight their respective strengths and weaknesses, giving students an insight into the mind of the examiner.

Matched to the AS specification from OCR with full coverage of the AS modules. Business Studies for AS 2nd edition matches the OCR specification, whilst retaining the best features of user friendliness from the 1st edition. In addition to new material in the contents, there are many more data response style questions and activities, many of which are based on real world cases.

OCR Business Studies Dynamic Learning

This major textbook has been written to meet the needs of students taking OCR AS Business Studies. It provides comprehensive coverage of the specification and includes a wide range of detailed case studies to help students apply their understanding to real business contexts. Written by three highly experienced examiners, OCR AS Business Studies is printed in full colour throughout and comprises 51 chapters. Each chapter explains the core content of a business topic examined in AS units 1 and 2 and features: a set of OCR-style questions together with a mark scheme a case study with questions of the type that students will face in their examination modules, giving them a clear focus to their revision of each topic and an opportunity to improve their exam technique. The case studies have been written to reflect OCR's commitment to providing specifications 'which view business behaviour from a variety of perspectives.' Key terms are explained throughout the book and students are directed to further resources, especially websites where they can update information. Regular group tasks allow students to debate and justify their views on a number of business issues.

Designed as a supplementary text for use by both students and teachers of GCSE business studies during the revision phase, this title can be used both in class and for homework to help students consolidate the information they have learnt over the past two years and learn how to apply their knowledge.

The complete student book in a Dynamic Learning format, plus teacher guidance, mark schemes and a wealth of additional resources.
