"Deux mondes" is widely regarded as the most communicative text available for beginning French courses. Based on the Natural Approach, developed by Tracy Terrell and Stephen Krashen, "Deux mondes, Fourth Edition" offers beginning language students a way to develop language proficiency, especially in listening and speaking, that allows students to participate in real conversations at a very early stage. The Natural Approach in general, and "Deux mondes, Fourth Edition"" in particular," present material inductively (so that the activities drive the grammar) and in the context of culturally rich themes and topics. This text clearly sets itself apart from the competition: with "Deux mondes," students quickly become excited with their rapid growth in comprehension and vocabulary acquisition, and enjoy speaking in the non-threatening environment made possible by the activity formats.

Intercultural Dialogue on Campus

Modern societies are inconceivable as isolated and mono-cultural entities. The interaction of various cultures is not only a fact of life for most Europeans, it also enriches our societies. However, we also witness tensions between cultures.

Intercultural dialogue is therefore one of the political priorities of the Council of Europe, as shown most prominently by the adoption of the White Paper "Living Together as Equals in Dignity" in May 2008. Higher education, by its history and contemporary practice, is a natural partner in and promoter of intercultural dialogue and understanding. Higher education institutions and campuses are themselves multicultural societies, and as such are the focus of the present volume. A second volume will examine the role of higher Cette méthode d'apprentissage du chinois s'appuie sur une expérience de près de trente années. Elle repose sur un choix pédagogique fort : plutôt que d'apprendre d'abord la structure de la langue (grammaire, etc.), l'objectif est l'acquisition par l'apprenant de compétences communicatives, linguistiques et culturelles de base suffisantes pour qu'il puisse très vite entrer en communication avec des locuteurs de langue chinoise.

L'apprenant pourra ainsi établir une relation amicale en s'échangeant des informations personnelles (âge, nationalité, famille, projets), en pratiquant ensemble des activités (aller au restaurant et au cinéma, échanger sur les réseaux sociaux, faire une balade en montagne, pique-niquer). Il pourra aussi voyager en Chine et dans les pays sinophones (demander son chemin, retirer de l'argent dans une banque, faire des achats, consulter un médecin, etc.). De plus, certains apprenants pourront mettre à profit cette base pour prolonger leur apprentissage en préparant des études chinoises spécialisées, et enrichir leur profil professionnel.

En tenant compte des avancées de la recherche en psycholinguistique de l'acquisition, cet ouvrage interroge la pertinence des discours grammaticaux sur le subjonctif en français dans la diversité de ses supports pédagogiques (manuels, grammaires, cd-rom, sites internet). En effet, le mode subjonctif cristallise une série de difficultés grammaticales - concurrence entre les modes, sémantisme des verbes introducteurs et connecteurs subordonnants exigeant l'un ou l'autre mode, etc. - et de représentations sociolinguistiques - valeur littéraire et de distinction du subjonctif imparfait. L'auteure propose une piste originale de rénovation de la grammaire pour l'enseignement-apprentissage du français : elle évalue les théories linguistiques produites sur le subjonctif à l'aune de leur valeur d'applicabilité et introduit le concept de linguistique applicable, qui renouvelle l'ancien paradigme de la linguistique appliquée. Grâce à une fiche d'analyse pratique, l'auteure propose une approche
