Fourteen Presbyterian scholars enter into conversations with the confessions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and examine the major theological themes that make the confessions such foundational commitments of faith. This collection of insightful essays provides readers with a clear understanding of the confessions from different periods of the church's life. These conversations with the confessions found in the PC(USA)'s Book of Confessions include some illuminating commentary on why they were written and demonstrate how they can be used to address major theological issues. This important work will help scholars, pastors, and church leaders interested in studying the Reformed tradition appreciate the role of the confessions in shaping Christian life and faith today.

Believers are called to live a life of faith. In fact, the Bible says that without faith, it is impossible to please God (Hebrews 11:6). But how do we get that faith? The answer is in the Word of God. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word (Romans 10:17). In Confessing God's Word, Dr. Maureen Anderson helps to zero in on the appropriate scripture for any situation. The promises of God are personalized and organized to aid in effective prayer and counsel.

David Brooks wrote in The Second Mountain, "A pilgrimage is a journey undertaken in response to a story." My life story has been lived in response to God's story revealed in the Bible. This book is about the highways I have traveled in obedience to the Voice of the Holy breaking into my successes and failures, desires and doubts, and leading me by the power of grace in ever merciful and transforming ways. If you are drawn to my story, it is because the same Voice is calling you to share the adventure of a lifetime in following Jesus as he set his face to go up to Jerusalem. Through my story may you hear Aslan's (Christ's) invitation, "Come further in! Come further up!" This story travels by way of the "highways to Zion" (Ps 84:5-7). Those highways become deeply paved in the hearts and minds of those who work for the healing of the world and who bring the blessings of the reign of God to barren, dry, and thirsty lands.

Just like natural laws, there are spiritual laws with cause and effect. Dr. Bill Winston, seen nationwide on the Believer's Walk of Faith broadcast, reveals from Scripture how powerful words can be to bring blessings or curses to your life.

"My life was filled with anger, self-determination, and indifference." Confessions of a Single Woman, Living Under Cover is a seven-year journey in which God transformed years of bitterness, brokenness, and fear into a healed and delivered woman. It shows how far his love will go to bring us back under his covering and moving into the life he has planned for us.

This book seeks to provide a solution to the Christian who must pray but does not know where to start. The first section of the book teaches on the importance of the bible and the significance of speaking the Word of God in your prayers whereas the second section provides practical word-based confessions and declarations for different prayer needs. The book covers a wide variety of topics and seeks to demonstrate how the word of God is declared, so that the reader can be able to come up with his own word-based declarations. This book is a useful tool for Christian gatherings of any form, to ensure that our meetings do not end without corporate prayer and declaring the word of God, which is a sign of our agreement with God on what He has said about and to us.

You wouldn't expect the true story of a farmer and his daughter to have a horrid beginning, but it does, beginning with blood and unexpected circumstances changing a sunny day to darkness. No confessions from the confessional but confessions of the farmer and his daughter. A simple phone call sending me back to the century old farm where I will find my dad struggling to live. Walk with me as I take off my shoes revealing the "holes in the bottom of my socks". We all know those holes exist but we don't want anyone to see them. My confessions are the "holes", my story of the path of life I have been on, remembering as I sit at the bedside of my dad. Walk with me as I walk on a country road where you will find direction for your own walk as I point you to a Great God and His Living Word.

In a world fraught with evil, encroaching darkness, violence, strife, confusion, attacks on families, failing finances, and health, distractions and emotional instability, man's usual reaction is that of despondency and negative proclamations. In the beginning, when God saw the darkness that covered the face of the earth, He decreed what He wanted to see rather than agree with what He saw. Since we are made in His image, rather than confessing the problem (darkness) we are to confess the solution (the Word) thereby transforming darkness to light. Believing and confessing are an important part of our Christian walk. What becomes manifest in our lives depends on our faith and confession God's confessions is the first of four compilations of inspired confessions of God's promises. This book will help you cultivate an awareness of your spiritual blessings and the limitless power of God as well as enable you grow stronger in your faith, as you establish the truth of God's word over you and your household through your declarations.

Where you go starts with your recognition of who you are in Christ. This book will inspire you to know who you are in Christ. It will motivate you to reach higher levels of success and satisfaction in life, family, and business. Our salvation in Christ ensures that every one of our needs or godly desires has been provided for by God. Yet many in the body of Christ are suffering and going without. Revelation is the key to developing the faith to receive the inheritance Jesus died to provide for us. One man said, "You are not suffering because there is a great devil, but because of your great ignorance." Ignorance of our identity in Christ is one reason many Christians are not possessing their divine inheritance. As someone once said, "Your vast inheritance [in Christ] comes only in proportion to your new identity." Our identity will influence what we become, how rich or poor we will be, how high we will climb, even how long we will live. The more revelation a person has of his new identity in Christ, the more of God's vast promises he will be able to receive and manifest in his life and circumstances. In Revelation of Royalty, you will discover: You cannot rise any higher than your confession and revelation of royalty You are a speaking spirit and have authority over the devil and all his works

Pastors in the Classics is a unique exploration of literary masterpieces in which the pastor's experience is a major part of the story. This collection uncovers the good, the bad, and the ugly ways in which pastors have been presented to the reading public for the past half millennium, and how pastors today can glean wisdom from those who have gone before. Just like natural laws, there are spiritual laws with cause and effect. God set the universe in motion with the power of His words and established the law of confession, but many believers have suffered needlessly by misunderstanding the power of their words. Dr. Bill Winston, pastor, Bible teacher, and host of the national television program Believer's Walk of Faith broadcast to over 100 million homes, reveals scriptural examples and vital teaching on the importance of the spoken word. Believers will uncover the enemy's deceptive plan to use their own words against them and what they can do to turn their situation around. 'One of the best things that ever happened to me, my family, and my church, was the revelation of the law of confession - we learned that the moment we win the battle over our words, we win the battle!' Dr. Bill Winston Controlling your words is one of the biggest challenges anyone will face in this life; the Bible reveals that the power of life and death are in the words you say. As you begin to change the words you speak, you will rewrite their future and revolutionize your life.

Speak Life! Confessions for Every Area of Your Life was written to help Christians change the landscape of their lives through the words they speak. The bible tells us that death and life are in the power of the tongue. This book helps the reader to speak life concerning different situations in their lives. Scriptures pertaining to various circumstances that one might face, have been researched, penned, and used to decree God's Word in our lives because there is power in our words. Words are a spirit. Words will have a positive or negative effect on that which they are intended.

The confession of faith, which was submitted to His Imperial Majesty Charles V at the diet of Augsburg in the year 1530

When I gave my life to the Lord, I used to get angry with myself all the time and I felt hopeless. I kept falling into sin and making dumb decisions that kept me from being successful. How could I be so smart and still be so stupid that I can't beat this thing? Self-pity began to gain strength. I got depressed, at one point I was homeless, and I gave up on myself. I walked away from God many times. One day my mother prayed with me and gave me a Bible and told me to read Romans. I later became a Minister. I couldn't get it right because I couldn't get past my addiction and my own self-interests. How could this be? I am a Minister. Who does the man of God go to when he is failing? The answer is clearly God. I became convinced that my testimony may help some other Ministers who struggle with the same things I did. Like me, they may be waiting on God and hoping He hears them, too! One day I accepted that even Preachers can fail. I wasn't doing anything constructive with my life at that time. I decided to trust God. I didn't know if He would do it, but I prayed anyway. I soon believed that if I asked God for faith, and told people the truth, God was going to change me. Today, I am a Minister in good standing in a church in Orange County, CA and the CEO of a nonprofit called A Touch of Love Works. When you read A Preacher's Confession, you discover that in spite of everything that is wrong with me, there is a side of me that wants to make the world a better place and I will do my part. This is my story. To God be the glory.

MEDITATION, CONFESSION AND HEALING IN WRITING TESTIMONIES This book is about the role of Bible meditation, confession and resolution through writing testimonies, which is a personal reflection on the word of God. This is a vital part of spiritual discipline that can lead to spiritual formation and development and yield great benefits in a Christian's spiritual growth including the healing of the whole person. "Dr. Samuel D. Lee's insightful book explains the inductive method of Bible study and the importance of meditation and confession. He explains very well the value of testimony writing. Meditation is prayerfully thinking about (and sometimes writing about) the contents of the Bible passage. Confession is not only confession of sin; it is also confession of faith and confession of praise and thanksgiving to God. He emphasizes the importance of writing and sharing in building up one's own faith and the faith of others. I believe that this book can be very helpful to the person who seeks to make his personal Bible study more meaningful." - Sarah Barry, Co-founder of University Bible Fellowship "I believe that Dr. Samuel D. Lee has without doubt written in lucid style the essentials of Christian disciplines of meditation in writing. This book is a must for all who desire to grow in their spiritual development in personal meditation." - Dr. David P. Lavigne, General Superintendent, The Evangelical Christian Church in Canada "Unquestionably this book is a significant contribution to the Christian church in postmodern time presenting an effective and persuasive way of spiritual formation and influential discipleship, shown in the case illustration of the practice." - Augustine Suh, Ph.D., Professor in Systematic Theology, Midwest University Samuel D. Lee, Ph.D., Bethany Divinity College & Seminary, is a missionary, Bible teacher and Biblical counsellor in Canada and an ordained pastor.

The Bible states that the tongue has the power of life and death (Proverbs 18:21). So often we are speaking death over our circumstances by contradicting what God has already declared to be true in His Word. God assured Joshua of prosperity and success in his life if he would do three things: 1) meditate on His Word day and night; 2) be careful to do everything written in that Word and not let the Word depart from his mouth (Joshua 1:8). When we confess God's Word out loud, we are agreeing with what He has already decreed about our situations. My Confession of Faith is a collection of declarations from the Word of God intended to be spoken aloud in much the same way that Jesus proclaimed repeatedly in the wilderness, "It is written!" It is a tool to help the believer speak "prophecy" like Ezekiel and speak life to the dry bones and difficult challenges of their life.

Book 3 is designed for parents to teach their children ages 14 to 17. It is adapted from historic Baptist resources, including the 1689 London Baptist Confession as well as the Westminster Larger Catechism. Included in the book is a verse memorization plan. Also included are hymns for each age to memorize. No longer will you need the printed words to keep singing. Your family will have famous Christian hymns in their hearts like: Blessed Assurance, And Can It Be That I Should Gain?, He Hideth My Soul. You will never regret spending this kind of quality time with your family. Praise for Building Foundations "I love guidebooks that draw the hearts of families to the living Word of God and sound doctrine. This is exactly what you get in Joseph M. Graham's book. It is a beautiful blend of scripture reading, catechism, scripture memory, and songs. This is exactly what families need to fortify them and keep them safe from the storms of this world." -Scott T. Brown Pastor of Hope Baptist Church, Wake Forest, NC Director of the National Center for Family Integrated Churches "Fathers failing to spiritually lead in their homes is one of the worst problems in the church today. If men would be the pastor/shepherds God has called us to be, the world and the church will look much different. "When I speak on marriage, I have found men want to be good spiritual leaders in their homes, but often they don't know what that looks like: "Where do I begin? What do I do for each age? What do my kids need to learn?" are common questions I receive. Joseph's book solves these problems. It is organized in a way that any family can disciple their children. The material is concise and designed with the children's spiritual interests in mind. The book will be a great asset to any families wanting to raise their children to know the Lord at the earliest possible age. "It's a nice thought that children will learn the whole bible, but it's impractical, taking years for them to have a good understanding. There are those verses that are most important for them at a young age, and Joseph has diligently laid those out. Additionally, there are memory verses and hymns for families to learn and sing together." -Scott LaPierre Senior Pastor of Woodland Christian Church, Woodland WA Author of Marriage God's Way and Enduring Trials God's Way

With a personal touch that is profound and disarming, Hunt takes his readers on a journey that is sure to change the way we experience our faith. At a time when so many are disillusioned about where the Catholic Church is and where it is going, Allen Hunt brilliantly reminds us that personal holiness is the key to the bigger future God wants to leads us to both as individuals and together as a Church.
