The story of crepes goes back to the period of the Pope Gelasius the First who in the end of the Roman Empire comforted weary pilgrims with something called pancakes or crepes. The dish served those days was made of flour, water and eggs. This old Catholic tradition reached our days and is called "Candlemas" marked on the 2nd of February - the date when the child Jesus was presenting to the temple, exactly 40 days f his birth. It also was symbolizing the end of the winter hardship and the spring prosperity and promise, putting the odds on its side of wealth. For the peasant world, 2nd of February is valued since it is the end of winter and the return to agricultural work. The blessed candles were therefore kept by the believer peasants to rekindle them in order to protect future high harvests. Over time the pancakes also became a testimony of allegiance farmers to their lords and were offered each year. As in the case for many ancestral holidays there is a reign of superstition around the 2nd of February, an atmosphere of superstition. Still to the present days many people

Montasio cheese to make fricos; the corn fields yield polenta for Velvety Cornmeal-Spinach Soup. · In Padova and Treviso rice reigns supreme, and Lidia discovers hearty soups and risottos that highlight local flavors. · In Piemonte, the robust Barolo wine distinguishes a fork-tender stufato of beef; local white truffles with scrambled eggs is “heaven on a plate”; and a bagna cauda serves as a dip for local vegetables, including prized cardoons. · In Maremma, where hunting and foraging are a way of life, earthy foods are mainstays, such as slow-cooked rabbit sauce for pasta or gnocchi and boar tenderloin with prune-apple Sauce, with Galloping Figs for dessert. · In Rome Lidia revels in the

There's something for everyone in this rich and satisfying book that will open up new horizons even to the most seasoned lover of Italy.
