

Divine Excellence Of Life

The first book-length philosophical study on the Presocratic influences in Plotinus' Enneads. I believe it is God's will for all people, congregations, families, organizations and businesses to be defined by excellence. To do so, excellence must be intentionally cultivated in your attitudes, values, goals and daily habits. This book, Thirty Days of Excellence, contains some of the most powerful principles of excellence in Scripture and will encourage you to cultivate one principle of excellence into the soil of your life each day for the next thirty days. Why thirty days? This book is divided into three sections: Excellence in Faith, Excellence in Speech, and Excellence in Life. Each section contains ten principles of excellence. Three sections multiplied by ten principles equals thirty days! What can you expect at the conclusion of your Thirty Days of Excellence journey? Expect to be thrust into divine order. Expect to step into greater purpose and destiny. Expect to develop the habits of excellence. Expect to excel in every area of your life. God has ordered it and the moment is right. Your soul will be encouraged, your spirit inspired and your life transformed. Welcome to Thirty Days of Excellence! Excellence is not in the destination, it is in the journey!

The twenty-first century opened with the religiously-inspired attacks of 9/11 and in the years since such attacks have become all too common. Over against the minority who carry out violence at God's direction, however, there are millions of believers around the world who live lives of anonymous kindness. They also see their actions as guided by the divine. How is divine guidance to be understood against the background of such diametrically opposed results? How to make sense of both Osama bin Laden and Mother Teresa? In order to answer this question, John A. Jillions turns to the first-century world of Corinth, where Jews, Gentiles, and early Christians intermixed and vigorously debated the question of divine guidance. In this ancient melting pot, the ideas of writers and poets, philosophers, rabbis, prophets, and the apostle Paul confronted and complemented each other. These writers reveal a culture that reflected deeply upon the realities, ambiguities, and snares posed by questions of divine guidance. Jillions draws these insights together to offer an outline for the twenty-first century and suggest criteria for how to assess perceived divine guidance. Jillions opens a long-closed window in the history of ideas in order to shed valuable light on this timeless question.

Manifesting Excellence

"Smart Life- A Woman's Guide To Excellence" offers the best guide which reflects upon those subjects, connected with the welfare of every woman. Let us but pursue excellence and happiness will almost inevitably follow. Let every woman aspire to high degrees of pure excellence. Let her great aim be, to be personally holy—like God her Saviour. To this end, with this aim, let her be ready to set aside, if necessary, father and mother, and brother and sister—yes, and her own life also,—assured that if she does it with a sacred regard to duty, all will be well. Let her but follow God according to the gospel plan, if it lead her to prison and to death. But it will not thus lead her. For every self-denial or self-sacrifice she involves, she will secure, as a general rule, manifold more in this present life, and in the

to come, life everlasting.

This challenging work calls readers to an alternative Christian spirituality, one that reveals God's "divine embrace" of us and our passionate response.

This book reflects poems of everyday people who have risen from the pit of life to excellence and people who have fallen into the pit of life and may never rise up to their human potential of excellence. Carol Coles has been touched by Roses from the Divine, experiencing life changes from the ghetto and rising to a measure of excellence by traveling across the United States from the East, Midwest, and finally to the West, settling in California. Each city has its own beauty, challenges, tears, and love, with every divine rose that came into the author's life then faded, leaving life's lessons that can only be told through poetry of the written word. Roses from the Divine moves from life's observance of women who rose out of nothing to claim their place in the world as written in the poem "Women of Excellence." Women who worked hard, their work was steadfast, and their beliefs in the impossible become the possible. Women who used their strength, love, and dedication to the goal was unrivaled no matter the challenges, both big and small, which uplifted them--role models for those women who would follow and make their own paths of excellence. Roses from the Divine moves the reader to those that fall into the pit of life as in the poem "Walk the Streets," which paints a picture of daily destruction of the soul. A painful reminder of lives that never see beyond the dark, but in their hearts long for a way out, but life may not show them a way out until the final darkness closes their souls in hope. In Roses from the Divine, the poet reaches out and reflects on individual encounters with friends and passersby, observations of nature's mystery, and those individuals touched by the divine. Finally, we reach the "portal of time," where all of us individually must go and stand through the portal with the realization that we look into infinity with our individual souls and reflect "I am." May all of us reach the portal of time knowing that we gave this life our best.

This book is about man and his unique ability to live a life of excellence and happiness. Each individual human being in this world has the potential to elevate himself and truly live as he is destined to live. Through the use of the human mind and the implementation of wisdom, man can transcend his animalistic tendencies and assume his elevated position in creation. This short book seeks to introduce man to the mechanism that is his soul. When one understands their soul, they are equipped to utilize it and unlock its powers. The material in this book is based on extensive research and is drawn from many ancient works of wisdom. As a theologian and Ph.D. trained expert in medieval manuscripts, it is my hope that the secrets I have discovered will help the reader understand himself and lead him to live a meaningful life of excellence and happiness.

This volume is a literary and cultural investigation of the discord and resonance between classical ideals of heroic action and the imperatives of the Christian life, from the Homeric epic to the present day. Its central theme is the difficulty of recognizing, imitating, and participating in heroic excellence--a difficulty that has been a concern for classical, Renaissance, and modern writers alike.

"Purposed To Illustrate A Divine Vision" God's Architectural Design For Your Life This is a unique inspirational book that speaks volumes to the life of any common or professional individual that considers himself/herself as a dreamer, a visionary of doing great exploits of big ideas and goals with endless imagination that one envisions coming true. Every possibility of creating things is already embedded in you given by God as a gift and an instrument for purpose. Let the tools and insight of this book open your mind to begin to not only dream big but to begin to implement the actions to produce the reality of those dreams. Once you have dreamt up an idea it is up to you to find out the origin of why those dreams was given to you and more importantly it should ignite a flame in you to nurture that dream and begin to manufacture the creative thought into reality. Most people dream big but never do much with the great ideas they come up with, some even never pursue their own deep desires in life to accomplish those personal goals and aspirations. The responsibility is upon you as an individual to not waist what time, energy and creativity God has given all of us individually and collectively. We all have some unproductive skill, talent, gift or idea lying dormant that needs attending to or awaken within us. As you read this book "Purpose To Illustrate A Divine Vision," you will find out the true value in all the creative thoughts that cross you mind daily. Our brains are the most powerful muscle we have given to us as human being use its ability of the thought process wisely. According to a UCLA study 70,000 thoughts go through our minds daily. What if that next ingenious thought in your mind is the biggest break in modern technology and you didn't use it; you would be doing yourself and the world a great injustice. Don't limit yourself in not becoming the greatest version of yourself. By grabbing this book and applying it the your way of life; you are able to explore the endless channels and possibilities of why we were created to be great creators in life ourselves. It all orchestrated and ordained by God. This is all possible through and by faith that you can do awesome things as your directed by God allow yourself to reach your full potential in life that He has called you to be. Your time is precious here on earth find out what you are purposed to become. In that you will begin to understand when you connect your thoughts and life experiences to the principles of God, you will find out His AWESOME plan will open up a world of endless possibilities blessing and favoring your life like never before. You are destine to do great things, and the purpose you were created is already inside you. Explore that thought, and it will reveal many things to you as you read this book you find your true self resurfacing in such a renewed way, you will realize your thoughts did not die, they were just lying dormant. Begin to create things by envisioning it first and then start to pursue it. As you write the vision, Sketch out the illustration, have faith in it, and God's awesome plan, know that He will bring it all to past. This book is the beginning of great things happening for you in life. It is compared to "Engineering your Vision" authored by Linwood Dillard My prayer that you find your divine purpose, see it through and always allow every aspect of your life to be governed by Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. May the grace of God be with you always, and His glory be revealed in everything you do. I hope this book inspires you to dig deeper into ones self and our relationship with God our creator. May He forever shine His love and grace upon all you do. Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the thoughts I think towards you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not evil, to give you an expected end. Have you ever wondered why some people are always successful in what they do and would like to know how they do it? The subconscious is the root of your true power and desire; it's your inner eight-year-old, your authentic self. It is the honest compass that will lead you to a life of happiness, so long as you are able to follow its direction. We all have the power to access it-children do so effortlessly-but as we grow up we're taught to stop daydreaming and to follow society's rules, which makes us disconnect from our subconscious, often with tragic results. This book explains the complete working of our Conscious, Subconscious, and Unconscious mind. How they work together and how they communicate with each other. By reading this book, you will learn: Steps to Unlock the Subconscious of Mind. Reprogram your Subconscious mind for Success and Happiness. Control your subconscious of mind. Train your Subconscious Mind through Exercise. Tips for programming your mind to attract what you want This book is an excellent guide for those people who want to change their habits to be happy, healthy, satisfied, and successful. The Spirit of Excellence combines the burning heart of a Christian with the burdened heart of a pastor, who desires to see more people rising above the challenges of life to achieve high standards of excellence in all facets of life. Following lines of least resistance may be okay for natural water flows, but achieving excellence is sometimes like swimming upstream against the current. It requires decision, determination, courage, and faith to persevere against the odds and overcome the lure to settle down for the second best. It unleashes the genius in you to become the very person that God had in mind when He created you. When people are influenced to live out the qualities of integrity, transparent honesty, holiness, etc., and they in turn influence others' friends, relations, and contacts to do the same, then the world is transformed and become a better place for us all. You have probably heard the slogan "Every little helps," and you may wonder if this could ever apply to your contribution to this vast world. The truth is that you are important to God, and your unique contribution can set off chain reactions that influences many. So when it feels like a little drop of water in an ocean, remember that the ocean is made up of drops. This book contains spiritual gems, witty nuggets, and powerful illustrations that will inspire faith and confidence to aim high in living for God now and everywhere. You will be challenged and motivated to take hold of God and pursue a life of practical excellence irrespective of your past or present circumstances. By so doing, you will truly become the salt of the earth and light of the world (Matt. 5:13-16), i.e., shiny examples that preserves goodness and guides aright.

Fulfilling Your Destiny with Ease teaches that no matter what the challenges are, God can make all things beautiful if we focus on the divine purpose for our existence. I sincerely recommend this book to all Christians and those who need to discover themselves in order to fulfill their destinies. Reverend Moses McKonteh

It has been stated that human beings use roughly 10% of our brain capacity according to science. Given all of humanity's major technological and other space-age advances, you would surmise that we are a very powerful species with limitless potential and possibilities. However our digital marvels, haven't kept mankind back from the edge of destruction. Or from barely holding on to a fragile thread of existence. Yet since the very beginning of recorded history, we have struggled with some of the most basic questions: Who are we? What are we? Where did we come from? Where are we headed after life and death? For centuries we have existed in a state of loss of identity. Not knowing who we really are, has generated endless scientific, cultural, racial and religious confusion. So where can we turn to overcome this endless confusion? The #1 Image Maker is a road map, a runway for takeoff, and a GPS to guide us to the ultimate and absolute questions in life and their answers. Why are we here? Why do we exist? And why do we have such intelligence, talents, and abilities that separate us from the rest of creation? Author Keith E. Echols delivers a powerful message for all of us, and he shows us how to recapture our lost and stolen identities and embrace The Image Makers purpose. His inspired wisdom is simple, yet profoundly clear to be unstoppable, live on purpose and with power.

The Lives of the Most Excellent Painters, Sculptors, and Architects

V10

The Lives of the Most Excellent Painters, Sculptors, and Architects Often called "the first art historian", Vasari invented the genre of the encyclopedia of artistic biographies with his Le Vite de' più eccellenti pittori, scultori, ed architettori (Lives of the Most Eminent Painters, Sculptors, and Architects), dedicated to Grand Duke Cosimo I de' Medici, which was first published in 1550. He was the first to use the term "Renaissance" (rinascita) in print, though an awareness of the ongoing "rebirth" in the arts had been in the air since the time of Alberti, and he was responsible for our use of the term Gothic Art, though he only used the word Goth which he associated with the "barbaric" German style. The Lives also included a novel treatise on the technical methods employed in the arts. The book was partly rewritten and enlarged in 1568, with the addition of woodcut portraits of artists (some conjectural). The work has a consistent and notorious bias in favour of Florentines, and tends to attribute to them all the developments in Renaissance art — for example, the invention of engraving. Venetian art in particular (along with arts from other parts of Europe), is systematically ignored in the first edition. Between the first and second editions, Vasari visited Venice and while the second edition gave more attention to Venetian art (finally including Titian) it did so without achieving a neutral point of view. Vasari's biographies are interspersed with amusing gossip. Many of his anecdotes have the ring of truth, while others are inventions or generic fictions, such as the tale of young Giotto painting a fly on the surface of a painting by Cimabue that the older master repeatedly tried to brush away, a genre tale that echoes anecdotes told of the Greek painter Apelles. With a few exceptions, however, Vasari's aesthetic judgement was acute and unbiased. He did not research archives for exact dates, as modern art historians do, and naturally his biographies are most dependable for the painters of his own generation and those of the immediate past. Modern criticism – with new materials opened up by research – has corrected many of his traditional dates and attributions. Vasari includes a sketch of his own biography at the end of the Lives, and adds further details about himself and his family in his lives of Lazzaro Vasari and Francesco Salviati. According to the historian Richard Goldthwaite, Vasari was one of the earliest authors to use the term "competition" (or "concorrenza" in Italian) in its economic sense. He used it repeatedly, and stressed the concept in his introduction to the life of Pietro Perugino, in explaining the reasons for Florentine artistic preeminence. In Vasari's view, Florentine artists excelled because they were hungry, and they were hungry because their fierce competition amongst themselves for commissions kept them so. Competition, he said, is "one of the nourishments that maintain them."

My Divine Living describes living our lives as God intended. Though not perfect, we are to strive to live with excellence with God as our foundation and our focus. 2 Peter 1:3 states, "His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness through knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence." My book, "My Divine Living," include topics on life lessons, family & relationships, strengthening your faith and more. Each from a biblical perspective. Though not an expert on anything, I am a wife, mother, educator, bible teacher and above all a servant of God. With God's divine guidance and inspiration, he has allowed me to speak to you through my life experiences while depending on and living divinely for Him.

"Outstanding success represents all-round success" Linda Nweke Every woman is born to excel. You were created to have influence of some sort. You were designed to impact your world. Your pursuit of excellence will position you for outstanding success. Understand that influence does not have to be rapid. The influence that endures is usually a gradual process. In order to genuinely impact the lives of those around you, patience is required, wisdom is essential and divine favour is a must. Within the pages of this book lie some powerful and practical keys that will unlock the golden potential that resides within you. Together we will embark on a journey to explore the lives of some outstanding women who have gone before us. You will learn from both their victories and their failures. A variety of subjects have been meticulously discussed in this book and some of them are: Why God made the woman. Far above rubies. The woman of covenant. Until she arose. The power of expectation. Qualities of outstanding women. Grace is enough. Linda Nweke (B.A.), is the co-pastor of the Joyful Assembly London, a Bible teacher, counselor and motivational speaker. A. A. Long's study of Greek notions of mind and human selfhood is anchored in questions of universal interest. What happens to us when we die? How is the mind or soul related to the body? Are we responsible for our own happiness? Can we achieve autonomy? Long shows that Greek thinkers' modeling of the mind gave us metaphors that we still live by.

In Demystifying Excellence, Bryne Dzomba describes a personal rediscovery of Excellence. The book is a theological discourse dedicated to a father and an inspired life. The book goes beyond the old and the new to explore a perpetual testament, the Testament of Excellence. It demystifies Excellence in a series of rich insights, from genesis to impressions for the individual. Each theme is thoughtfully presented to guide the reader through a comprehensive reflection on the topic. The reader will learn how Excellence is revealed and how it manifests through God's design and divine craftsmanship. Excellence is explored through grace, standards, seasons and spirit. The 'who', 'what', 'how' and 'where' of Excellence are explored in the context of service and sonship. After each element is presented, guided by the wisdom of God's Word, the reader is encouraged to reflect on Excellence by discovering their own presence and their own word. In each section, the author harmonises a father's teachings, humbly acknowledged and woven throughout, with a lifetime of thoughtful reflection and meditation. This synthesis results in a book that reflects empowerment, sonship and faith, and wisdom shared from father to son and author to reader.

With the view of looking out for God's blueprint for their children and appreciating each strategically placed detail in their children's personality in order to train up each child "in the way he or she should go."

How do Christians account for the widespread presence of goodness in a fallen world?

Richard Mouw, one of the most influential evangelical voices in America, presents his mature thought on the topic of common grace. Addressing a range of issues relevant to engaging common grace in the 21st century, Mouw shows how God takes delight in all things that glorify him--even those that happen beyond the boundaries of the church--and defends the doctrine of common grace from its detractors.
