Trouble is brewing in the Western Reaches . As a dark wizard attempts to cheat death, five less than likely heroes begin a search for an artifact as legendary and powerful as the Gods Themselves: the enigmatic Dragon Ruby. In their quest to ferry the gem to the distant shores of a haunted city, they must contend with the wizard's ruthless lapdog, survive the nightlife of the most dangerous port in the land, and square off against an infamous pirate captain and his swashbuckling crew. Can they learn to work together before the forces of evil overwhelm them? Can they escape the machinations of the deadly White Lotus Club? Will the aspiring thief ever reach second level? Only Salliwanda can tell, and she's not talking.Join Bob, Neil, Devan, Grunt, and Lobo on their pulp-fantasy romp through a land filled with peril, intrigue, and romance! Marvel as they explore the City of Gnomes! Cringe as they cross blades with an agent of the infernal Sick! Grin as they encounter a rogues' gallery of colorful characters from the diminutive Madame Yugolo to the grizzled Constable Kreegal! Cheer with Pfeltland abandon as they best the obstacles before them, and know that before the end, the fingers of the Gods are as crossed as your own.Freshman authors T. Michael Murdock and J. Herschel Jeffrey invite you to explore their new creation: a world of steam and sorcery, of blades and banter. Steeped in the traditions of popular fantasy and lovingly garnished with wit and frivolity, the Western Reaches and their memorable populace are sure to bring a smile to your face for months-nay, decades after you turn the final page. FROM THE BOOK"Neil!" Nancy shouted as the tide of Colonists carried him away. "I'll remember you fondly!"Neil winced at those words and wondered if he would ever see his mother again. Then, he wondered why his mother would say such a callous thing as her only son was about to be sacrificed to a volcano god by crazy Islanders. Then, he thought about Talya. Then, he thought about Bob. Then, he thought about why he was thinking about anything other than trying to get away. Then, he had a plan. However, the plan involved two swords and a lot of heavy firepower. So, he shrugged his shoulders and relaxed as they carried him past a wooden gate and along a torch-lit path toward the black mountain. Life was not good, but at least he had a Scarab that said "GHOTI" and had gotten his nipples pinched within the last two hours. Things could be worse. And they were seriously about to be. Herschel Jeffrey lives in Point Pleasant, West Virginia with his wife Kimberly, daughters Taylor and Arden, and the Mothman. He is thirty years old. T. Michael Murdock is a professional actor and writer currently living in Chesapeake, Ohio. He has never met J. Herschel Jeffrey

No clues. No leads. This time it's personal! " Maddog " is gunned down, and left for dead with two slugs in his chest. Ride with Murdock as he searches for the unknown assailant. " Maddog " Murdock takes you to a dark place of mayhem and murder. From cover to cover, the characters, and the chase they lead you on, will keep you intrigued. You don't want to cross this two-fisted private eye. Murdock takes you into the underbelly of the " Big Apple " of 1970. There are scenes of nail-biting action; very graphic and disturbing scenes of violence, even by today's standards. What is so amazing about this book is the way the author has woven a complex murder mystery in with comic relief.

MADDOG is a tough as hardtack, brutally violent, and self-righteous character who considers himself judge, jury, and executioner. Murdock's techniques and attitude are sometimes gory, over the top, and just plain repulsive. But that's the appeal. You'll want to follow him to the very end of each of his violent adventures. The time is 1969, the place is New York City, and in these concrete canyons, everybody has got an angle.Frankie Fortuna, the greatest crooner of four decades, calls Mike Murdock in to help get back his kidnapped granddaughter. Full of suspense, the chapters take you through twists and turns that keep you riveted to the pages. Murdock is hard boiled, not always on the "up & up", and isn't bashful about hurting people. His Colt .45 semi-automatic is always tucked in his shoulder holster, ready for action. He can do, and does, things that police can't. You will find it difficult not to turn the pages from start to finish in this sequel.
