As it so often

anything when they came into

faces. The light was far

even when I was allowed my

them, I knew

hands. I knew
every line, crease and

Some where tan, most were pale, even delicate. What they did to me

was anything
but. As they

my eyes always focused on the hands. I knew
what they

They'd never

it was – and
there had been times that it
was awful – it

next to the

would wait, in silence,
whether gagged
or not. They liked to make me wait. But it wouldn't

would endure,
and I would

bringing me

straightened
my back,
raising my

an unspoken
expectation that I was to

I wasn't about to meekly go along with their insanity. It would cost me, I knew, but nothing came without cost in this place. I resolved to show them I

I would endure. The

But I would
endure. “Do

Those words.
