avid golfers use their power and wealth to shape life to their own depraved reality at the expense of others. The golf course is in a remote part of the world and kept secret from the public. The messenger visits a senator, army colonel, a professional baseball player and a wealthy surgeon. His presence terrifies each person he visits but they accept the exclusive invitation despite their instincts. The golfers look forward to a long weekend to indulge in the opulent amenities of the golf club but the distinguished director of the club has other plans. A lifetime membership to the club is the prize for winning the golf match. When

This book consists of twenty-one empirical studies in the field of education conducted in the Belizean context by Belizean educators. It covers a variety of topics across various levels of education across the six districts in Belize. Each research study article consists of a background that introduces the topic of the study. A brief literature review informs the reader of the conceptual or theoretical framework of the study. The methodology presents the approach, research design, sample, and data collection procedures. The results section shares the raw data collected from the participants. The findings are discussed to bring the study together and it incorporates content from the literature review in the discussion. Conclusions are drawn and recommendations are made as a result of the conclusions. Each study suggests implications for best practices across the different topic areas. The
