In a televised social experiment before millions of viewers, police sergeant Derrick Levasseur demonstrated that techniques used by undercover detectives could help people achieve their goals in everyday social situations. The result: he walked away with more than half a million dollars. In The Undercover Edge, Derrick shares his personal mind-set surrounding human behavior and motivation. Even more than that, he provides easy yet groundbreaking tools acquired while overcoming personal adversity and working more than a decade in law enforcement, showing readers: • The power of observation and creating a profile • The effect of using silence to extract and evaluate information • The benefits of interpreting body language and developing your sixth sense • The importance of self-awareness and adapting to your environment • The value of developing a personal ops plan with a defined mission Derrick's approach allows readers to create a solid foundation in their lives, build confidence personally and professionally, and push themselves to become stronger, more capable leaders.

Handbook on Innovations in Learning

A Better High

An innovation in learning improves upon the implementation of the standard practice or introduces a new practice, thus achieving greater learning outcomes. The Handbook on Innovations in Learning, developed by the Center on Innovations in Learning, presents the current best practices of instruction before embarking on descriptions of selected innovative practices which promise better methods of engaging and teaching students. Written by a diverse and talented field of experts, chapters in the Handbook seek to do what they describe by suggesting implementation policies and procedures to leaders of state and local education agencies.

Includes bibliography and indexes / subject, personal author, corporate author, title, and media index.

My name is Dovey Coe and I reckon it do 't matter if you like me or not. I 'm here to lay the record straight, to let you know them folks saying I done a terrible thing are liars. I aim to prove it, too. I hated Parnell Caraway as much as the next person, but I didn 't kill him. Dovey Coe says what 's on her mind, so it 's no secret that she can 't stand Parnell Caraway. Parnell may be the son of the richest man in town, but he 's mean and snobby, and Dovey can 't stand the fact that he 's courting her sister, Caroline, or the way he treats her brother, Amos, as if he were stupid just because he can 't hear. So when Parnell turns up dead, and Dovey 's in the room where his body is discovered, she soon finds herself on trial for murder. Can the outspoken Dovey sit still and trust a city slicker lawyer who 's still wet behind the ears to get her out of the biggest mess of her life?
