

I Am Not Scared

From bestselling and beloved author Todd Parr, a new book that reassures kids everywhere that even when things are scary or confusing, there’s always something comforting around the corner. Todd Parr brings his trademark bright colors and bold lines to his new book about things that might make kids worry—from loud news, to loud neighbors, or a big day at school. With his signature humor and instantly recognizable style, Todd speaks out to kids who are feeling the weight of their world, offering solutions and comfort, as well as giggles.

Poems deal with bullies, closets, growling dogs, dentists, warts, new teachers, diving boards, tests, and monsters under the bed.

Harry’s drawn a picture of a Monster with hairy scary fur, huge teeth, and long sharp claws. And now it’s come to life! Harry and his Dinosaurs decide the best place to hide is Dino World. But when the Monster follows them there, only Harry can save the day!

The narrator is frightened by a pair of pale green pants with no one inside that seem to be following him, until the two meet and discover that they have nothing to fear. Features illustrations that glow in the dark.

A Book of Scary Poems

The Don't Worry Book

On his first visit to the amusement park, Albert claims he is not afraid, he simply does not like rides that go up and down, left and right, or around and around, but things change when he and his big sister, Wanda, accidentally ride the roller coaster.

I'm not scared of monsters. They don't frighten me. Even the ones with scary eyes: I'd let them dine with me! Meet the bravest cat ever. He's not afraid of dreadful monsters, ugly beasts or icky creepy crawlies! He's not scaredy cat! But who's that knocking at his door?

Not being able to agree who is small and who is big, two fuzzy animals have their argument settled by a couple of mystery guests.

Bats and pumpkins carved with scary faces can seem a little frightening to a young child. But in this colorful board book filled with rhyming text, adorable illustrations, and even a glow-in-the-dark pumpkin on the cover, readers will learn there is no reason to be afraid. Jesus will always be with them--even on Halloween!

Ask a Manager

One relentless summer, six children explore the scorched wheatfields that surround their tiny community in the Italian countryside, while the adults shelter indoors. But when the gang chances on a tumbledown farmhouse, nine-year-old Michele Amitrano makes a discovery so momentous he dare not tell anyone about it. I'm Not Scared is a devastatingly authentic portrayal of childhood, and Michele must summon all of his imaginative resources to deal with his terrible secret. This is an enthralling and terrifying story about friendship and betrayal, guilt and innocence, which drives us inexorably to its tragic climax.

From the creator of the popular website Ask a Manager and New York's work-advice columnist comes a witty, practical guide to 200 difficult professional conversations—including all-new advice! There's a reason Alison Green has been called "the Dear Abby of the work world." Ten years as a workplace-advice columnist have taught her that people avoid awkward conversations in the office because they simply don't know what to say. Thankfully, Green does—and in this incredibly helpful book, she tackles the tough discussions you may need to have during your career. You'll learn what to say when coworkers push their work on you—then take credit for it—you accidentally trash-talk someone in an email then hit "reply all" • you're being micromanaged—or not being managed at all • you catch a colleague in a lie • your boss seems unhappy with your work • your cubemate's loud speakerphone is making you homicidal • you got drunk at the holiday party Praise for Ask a Manager "A must-read for anyone who works . . . [Alison Green's] advice boils down to the idea that you should be professional (even when others are not) and that communicating in a straightforward manner with candor and kindness will get you far, no matter where you work." —Booklist (starred review) "The author's friendly, warm, no-nonsense writing is a pleasure to read, and her advice can be widely applied to relationships in all areas of readers' lives. Ideal for anyone new to the job market or new to management, or anyone hoping to improve their work experience." —Library Journal (starred review) "I am a huge fan of Alison Green's Ask a Manager column. This book is even better. It teaches us how to deal with many of the most vexing big and little problems in our workplaces—and to do so with grace, confidence, and a sense of humor." —Robert Sutton, Stanford professor and author of The No Asshole Rule and The Asshole Survival Guide "Ask a Manager is the ultimate playbook for navigating the traditional workplace in a diplomatic but firm way." —Erin Lowry, author of Broke Millennials: Stop Scraping By and Get Your Financial Life Together

I Am Not ScaredTwo Lions

A little squirrel announces that he was once very, very, scared and finds out that he is not alone. Lots of little animals went through scary experiences, but they react in different ways. Turtle hides and gets a tummy ache, monkey clings, dog barks, and elephant doesn't like to talk about it. They need help, and they get help from grown-ups who help them feel safe and learn ways to cope with difficult feelings. This story was written to help children and grown-ups understand how stress can affect children and ways to help them.

I'm Not Scared of THE DARK

A day in the life of a mad housewife in Manhattan: “One of the truest and most awesome books I have ever read” (The Scotsman). She was born Mary Dunne. A New York actress in a stalled career, she’s previously been known as Maria and Martha. Married three times, she’s also been called Mrs. Phelan, Mrs. Bell, and currently, Mrs. Terence Lavery—wife of the esteemed playwright. No wonder Mary Dunne forgot her name this morning at the hairdresser. She has no idea who she is anymore. Or maybe she’s just crazy. Tries to recall more than her name. But as memories of her past come trickling back—infruriating, illuminating, and grievous—she realizes there’s so much she’d prefer to forget. As she tries to escape what she calls “the dooms,” Mary must confront what she’s done with her life—deliberately, haplessly, or by default. If only she were going crazy! it would be so much easier to explain it all away. Hailed by the Globe and Mail as a “feminist novel written before the wave of feminist novels began,” I Am Mary Dunne is “as good as Observed.”

The bestselling author of I'm Not Scared "elogizes adolescence fiercely and sympathetically" in a novel that's "scary, lovely and at last a heartbreaker" (Kirkus Reviews). Lorenzo Cuni is a fourteen-year-old loner. His wealthy parents think he is away on a school skiing trip, but in fact he has stowed away in a forgotten cellar. For a week he plans to live in perfect isolation, keeping the adult world at bay. Then a visit from his estranged half-sister, Olivia, changes everything. Evoking the fierce intensity and the pulse-quickening novel, Me and You is a breathtaking tale of alienation, acceptance, and wanting to be loved by "a fearsomely gifted writer" (The Independent). "Immensely engaging. . . . Both tender and emotionally arresting, Ammaniti's novel is unforgettable." —Publishers Weekly, starred review "Italian author Niccolò Ammaniti does a lot in 160 pages, including surprise, humor, and frighten you—sometimes simultaneously." —Daily Candy "Ammaniti's prose is nimble, perceptive and economical. . . . There's a lot to love about this book—its addiction, its remarkable use of restricted physical space." —Full Stop "Me and You takes a short time to read but offers a memorable experience in a mutual recognition of loneliness and grief." —Curled Up With a Good Book "Me And You, at just over one hundred pages. . . [is a] perfect book. . . Niccolò Ammaniti disgusts me for how talented he is. . . . He has written a masterpiece." —Antonio D'Orrico, Corriere della Sera This brief artistic collection of fears around dying—and their ultimate futility in the face of the unknown—is a keepsake, a prayer book, a prompt for contemplation, and a gift to give to others to inspire conversations about the liberating power of death and what makes a good life. This small book of 12 meditations on death is intentionally repetitive and hypnotic in effect, and will inspire the reader to list what scares them most, come to terms with their own mortality, and realize what fears are holding them back from living. This work is written with greater intention and purpose and experience more joy and appreciation of the present moment. Buddhists and mindfulness practitioners, people who are aging, people who read the news and are worried, artists, people who are taking care of others who are dying (i.e., all of us. . .). Tarot card readers and modern-day shamans will all find inspiration in these terse lists. Young people aghast at the adult world's seeming indifference to our mortality will especially relate to Leo. Leo thought he knew the dark. He had no idea. For eight year old Leo Sparks moving into his grandmother's house has been a nightmare, and it's about to get worse. Feeling brave after rescuing his sister from Grandma's dreaded basement, Leo decides to sleep alone in the creepy old house without his trusty night light. When nature calls in the middle of the night, Leo will have to summon up every ounce of courage to overcome the monsters hiding under his bed, invisible tripping hazards, and wild animals, as he faces the scariest thing of all: the dark. I'm Not Scared of the DARK is the second installment of the early chapter book series featuring Leo Sparks that encourages kids to be brave, be confident and keep moving forward.

Eight year old Leo Sparks is afraid of everything. Carnival rides, the deep end of pools, the color pink and eating lobster have all made his list of over one hundred and thirty eight unique fears. So when his family decides to move across country, to live in his grandmother's creepy old house, Leo's anxiety goes into overdrive. Soon Leo is forced to face his fears and develop the self-confidence required in order to rescue his younger sister when she becomes trapped in the one place he never thought he would be brave enough to go...GRANDMA'S BASEMENT. I'm NOT scared of GRANDMA'S BASEMENT is the first in an early chapter book series featuring Leo Sparks that encourages kids to be brave, be confident and keep moving forward.

As a young boy, running through the mountain valleys of Italy, Mark Gentile dreams of success—the kind of success that happens in a boardroom, far away from the country life. So after graduating from law school, Mark quickly climbs the corporate and legal ladder, eventually becoming CEO of a leading auto manufacturer. But after butting heads with company leaders, Mark fears he has compromised his ethics. With his wife's blessing, Mark returns to Acreenza, his birthplace in southern Italy. While enjoying the leisurely pace of the new life he's found in his old home, however, Mark must make a decision: Should he abandon his roots for a second time and satisfy his innate hunger for the struggles and rewards of corporate life? Or should he embrace his native land and create a more balanced life for himself and his family?

Albert Is Not Scared

Elliot has lived his first thirteen years confined to his home, incapacitated by fear. Now he's out of pills, snow is falling, and his only safe person is missing. A terrifying thriller from Carnegie Medalist Kevin Brooks. From the moment of his birth, Elliot's life has been governed by fear of almost everything, even of his own fear — a beast that holds him prisoner in his room. The beast is kept at bay, though not eliminated, with a daily regimen of pills. But on Christmas Eve, a mix-up at the pharmacy threatens to unleash the beast full force, and his mother must venture out in a raging snowstorm to a store that should be only minutes away. Hours later, when she still hasn't returned, Elliot sees no choice but to push through his terror, leave the house, and hunt for her. What happens if the last of his medication wears off and the beast starts scratching at the doors of his mind? Everyone has a breaking point — will Elliot come to his? With plot twists and turns that keep readers on the edge of their seats, multi-award-winning author Kevin Brooks offers a high-suspense exploration of fear and what it means to truly be afraid.

Shani Boianju's stunning debut gives us a world where girls in the Israeli Defense Forces wait, endlessly—for womanhood, orders, war, peace. Yael trains marksmen and flirts with boys. Avishag stands guard, watching refugees throw themselves at barbed-wire fences. Lea, posted at a checkpoint, imagines stories behind the familiar faces that pass by her day after day. They gossip about boys and whisper of an ever more violent world just beyond view. They drill, constantly, for a moment that may never come. They live inside that single, intense second just before danger erupts. And they find that their dreams have stranger repercussions than they have been trained to imagine.

From the incomparable host of “Late Night with Seth Meyers” comes a hilarious new picture book. When you're a bear who is easily scared, it's hard to have friends. Fortunately, Bear has one: Rabbit, who is very brave. One day, Rabbit urges Bear to face his fears and embark on an adventure together. However, things don't entirely go as planned, and the two friends learn the true meaning of bravery. Equal parts hilarious and touching, this funny tale of adventure, bravery, and daring rescue will both inspire the adventurous spirit in all of us and make us laugh along the way. With the unfailingly witty voice of one of America's favorite comedians, Seth Meyers's debut picture book is bound for hilarity history.

Ichiano Scalo. A place where even the main road out to the nearest big town gives up after a couple of miles, where escape from a life of boredom and emptiness is almost impossible. Forced into crimes he never wanted to commit, Pietro reaches crisis point when his parents ignore his pleas for help and his schoolteacher turns her back on him - in desperation, he reaches out for attention, and finds instead a terrible revenge. Escape from Ichiano Scalo comes at a price. Life there will never be the same again.

When faced with danger you must DO something. The teacher at the Ant Hill School wants her students to be prepared - for everything! One day, she teaches her students what to do if a "dangerous someone" is in their school. "I'll be your shepherd, and you're all my sheep, so you must do what I say. Pretend there's a wolf in our building, and we MUST stay out of his way!" "We need a great plan of action in case we start to get scared. The ALICE Plan will work the best, to help us be prepared." Unfortunately, in the world we now live in, we must ask the essential question: What are the options for survival if we find ourselves in a violent intruder event? I'm Not Scared...I'm Prepared! will enhance the ALICE concepts and make them applicable to children of all ages in a non-fearful way. By using this book, children can develop a better understanding of what needs to be done if they ever encounter a "dangerous someone."

An exceptionally clear and accessible study guide to the best seller I'm Not Scared for senior secondary English students.

Two fuzzy friends go to an amusement park. They try to convince each other that there are much scarier things than the roller coaster. Hairy spiders! Aliens! Fried ants! They soon discover that sometimes being scared isn't as "scary" as they thought. With expressive illustrations and simple text, this giggle-inducing tale about (not) being scared features the endearing characters from the Theodor Seuss Geisel Awardwinner You Are (Not) Small.

Children often feel afraid. This book, with its comforting words and illustrations, will help children address those fears and learn some new ways to cope with being afraid. First, a little bear describes some of the things that frighten him, like bad dreams or big, tall slides, or when his mother goes away. Sometimes, he just feels scared and doesn't know why! But he learns there are things he can do to make himself feel better. A "Note to Parents and Teachers" reinforces the positive messages in the book.
