in the economic world: companies run to win market shares, employees jockey to gain better position, CEO struggle to convince Wall Street that their strategic orientations are the best and so on. But a closer look at the history of the world reveals three exceptional men who have been involved in immense battles and have been winning amazing victories using Non-Violence Principle. Buddha succeeded in the spiritual era at a worldwide level. He invented an alternative religion, softer than the existing religions of his time because he considered it too hard for people. Twenty-five centuries later, nearly half the people on earth are declaring themselves Buddhists. Non Violence Principle is inherent to Buddhism from the religion itself to the way people came to it. Gandhi succeeded in the political sphere on a continental scale. He gave battle to English colonialism in the 20th century. He obtained independence of India following Non-Violence Principle in the way he politically struggled against his opponents. Rickson Gracie succeeded in sports at the martial arts level. He demonstrated the superiority of his martial art: Gracie jiu-jitsu, versus any other martial arts, with a historic undefeated record of 450 fights between two men. Non Violence Principle is part of his
