Kerrigan Belmond has everything I don't have. A name that opens doors, more money than god, an Oxford education, and rumors that she's caught the eye of Spencer Byrd, the heir of one of England's most powerful aristocratic families. I'm an orphan, running from a tragedy I can't face. Being mistaken for her is flattering until her father arrives at my door with an indecent proposal. His daughter has fled her perfect life, and he wants me to step into her shoes until she can be coaxed back to her pedestal. The arrangement is simple. For one year I will be Kerrigan Belmond. The perfect daughter. The charming socialite. The ideal future wife. For one year, I will do anything she would do. And for one year, I will keep the attention of Spencer at all costs. I can't say no, but as soon as I meet Spencer and his brother I realize the mistake I've made. To the outside world, the Byrds are London society and Spencer is the golden boy groomed to become prime minister. Behind closed doors, his family is as twisted and tangled as the web I'm walking into. Spencer demands loyalty. He expects discretion. And he's ready to claim the woman he's been promised in every way. Keeping him happy means I might lose more than a year of my life, but I can't turn down the proposition. Not with what the Belmonds have promised me in return. They say everyone has a price. I know mine. Ten million pounds.

Sarah Jardin has been quite dreadfully in love with David Rochester her whole life. As the youngest of five daughters, her family and society neglect her. She's outspoken, brash, and terribly ungraceful. In short, not at all a lady...until she is taken under the benevolent wing of Lady Lancaster and invited to join the Young Ladies Garden Society. But Sarah's new life—filled with the mysteries and intrigues of high society—is interrupted by an unexpected scandal. Her scandal. In a moment of kindness, David comforts her...and they are

The ancestry of Humber goes back as far as any in the British motor industry, to 1868 when Thomas Humber began to make French-style forerunners to the bicycle, in Nottingham. The first Humber cars were also of French design, but Humber soon became a wholly British car made in two factories, cheaper models at Coventry and more expensive ones at Beeston. Humbers were among the most respected British cars of the 1920s, moving up-market in the 1930s. Humbers retained their reputation for quality up to the end of the line in 1976.

out what really happened to her parents. Suddenly finding herself the center of attention among Riverford's shifter clans, Kylie's only hope of navigating such a dangerous minefield of politics and perpetual battles over territory is Hunter, a too-sexy-for-her-peace-of-mind jaguar shifter that might be her key to gaining insider access to the hidden and secretive shifter society. Now Kylie must decide whether to integrate more deeply into Hunter's jaguar clan in order to take advantage of this rare opportunity or to

From New York Times and USA Today bestselling author Kristen Proby comes a new story in her With Me In Seattle series...

Sabrina Harrison hates being famous. She walked away from show business, from the flashing bulbs and prying eyes years ago, and is happy in her rural Oregon home, dedicating her life to her non-profit. Until Hollywood calls, offering her the role of a lifetime. In more than ten years, she's never felt the pull to return to the business that shunned her, but this role is everything Sabrina's ever longed for. Now she has to get in shape for it. Benjamin Demarco's gym, Sound Fitness, continues making a name for itself in Seattle. And now, he finds himself with the task of training Sabrina, getting her in shape for the role of her life. He's trained hundreds of women. This is his job. So why does he *suddenly see Sabrina as more than just another client? His hands linger on her skin, his breath catches when she's near. He knows better. Soon, she'll be gone, living her life. A life that doesn't include him. **Every 1001 Dark Nights novella is a standalone story. For new readers, it's an introduction to an author's world.
