

La Danza La Mia Vita

This volume offers a complete survey and bibliography of Italian literature from 1827 to 1930, giving its three stages of development: historical, naturalistic, reflective.

Una malattia neurodegenerativa come il Parkinson impone gravi limiti nella vita dell ' autore; lo sollecita ad una riflessione profonda; chiede risposte nuove a problemi dati per risolti e obbliga a riposizionamenti coraggiosi su verità che prima sembravano scontate. Un percorso difficile che lo spaventa. Eppure l ' amore per la vita e la speranza prevalgono sempre, tanto da arrivare a dipingere la propria esistenza con nuovi colori. Luca si incammina disarmato nella sua storia lasciando tutto... e ritrovando se stesso attraverso inattese consapevolezze.

A Stage of Their Own

The eighth volume of the International Yearbook of Futurism Studies is again an open issue and presents in its first section new research into the international impact of Futurism on artists and artistic movements in France, Great Britain, Hungary and Sweden. This is followed by a study that investigates a variety of Futurist inspired developments in architecture, and an essay that demonstrates that the Futurist heritage was far from forgotten after the Second World War. These papers show how a wealth of connections linked Futurism with Archigram, Metabolism, Archizoom and Deconstructivism, as well as the Nuclear Art movement, Spatialism, Environmental Art, Neon Art, Kinetic Art and many other trends of the 1960s and 70s. The second section focuses on Futurism and Science and contains a number of papers that were first presented atthe fifth bi-annual conference of the European Network for Avant-Garde and Modernism Studies (EAM), held on 1-3 June 2016 in Rennes. They investigate the impact of science on Futurist aesthetics and the Futurist quest for a new perception and rational understanding of the world, as well as the movement’s connection with the esoteric domain, especially in the field of theosophy, the Hermetic tradition, Gnostic mysticism and a whole phalanx of Spiritualist beliefs. The Archive section offers a survey of collections and archives in Northern Italy that are concerned with Futurist ceramics, and a report on the Fondazione Primo Conti in Fiesole, established in April 1980 as a museum, library and archive devoted to the documentation of the international avant-garde, and to Italian Futurism in particular. A review section dedicated to exhibitions, conferences and publications is followed by an annual bibliography of international Futurism studies, exhibition catalogues, special issues of periodicals and new editions.

Mi sono laureato nel febbraio dell'anno accademico 1963-1964. Precedentemente, durante gli anni di studio, avevo frequentato, in particolare, l'istituto di patologia generale, anatomia patologica, clinica chirurgica e clinica medica. Dopo la laurea sono stato interno per più di un anno presso l'istituto di patologia medica per meglio prepararmi all'esame di stato di abilitazione alla professione medico-chirurgica e per imparare dai maestri della medicina, "di allora", l'arte di fare il medico...

La mia vita in equilibrio tra un tacco 12 e un'inglesina

The 71st volume of the Eranos Yearbooks, Beyond Masters – Spaces Without Thresholds, presents the work of the activities at the Eranos Foundation in 2012. The book gathers the lectures organized on the theme of the 2012 Eranos Conference, “On the Threshold – Disorientation and New Forms of Space” together with the talks given on the occasion of the 2012 Eranos-Jung Lectures seminar cycle, on the topic, “The Eclipse of the Masters?” This volume includes essays by Valerio Adami, Stephen Aizenstat, Claudio Bonvecchio, Michael Engelhard, Adriano Fabris, Maurizio Ferraris, Mauro Guindani, Nikolaus Koliusis, Fabio Merlini, Bernardo Nante, Fausto Petrella, Gian Piero Quaglino, Shantena Augusto Sabbadini, Amelia Valtolina, and Marco Vozza. Each lecture is reproduced in the language in which it was presented: 12 essays in Italian, 3 in English, and 2 in German.

“In My Shoes”... si tratta di un'autobiografia romanzata: racconta la mia vita nei momenti più emozionanti, i miei più grandi arrovellamenti, le tribolazioni, le ossessioni e la delizia. La vita vista dagli occhi di Susanna, Susy per i più, esperto linguistico d'impresa, quarant'anni, un marito, due figli, tre tatuaggi, una valanga di libri, un universo di sogni e “duemilacredici” speranze. Il mio libro racconta di chi come me cerca invano l'equilibrio sotto la follia delle diverse maschere della vita: mamma, donna, moglie, amica, confidente: naturalmente e perfettamente TUTTO questo

e molto altro. Racconta dei momenti in cui credevo di non farcela e di quelli in cui mi chiedevo se si potesse essere più felici. Il libro sarà presto disponibile anche in lingua inglese.

Grazia Deledda's Dance of Modernity

The First Sketch of Shakespeare's Merry Wives of Windsor

This book explores an important moment in Italian women’s theatre and cultural history: plays written for all-women casts between 1946 and the mid-1960s, authored for the most part by women and performed exclusively by women. Because they featured only female roles, they concentrated on aspects of specifically women’s experience, be it their spirituality, their future lives as wives and mothers, their present lives as workers or students, or their relationships with friends, sisters and mothers. Most often performed in a Catholic environment, they were meant to both entertain and educate, reflecting the specific issues that both performers and spectators had to confront in the years between the end of the war and the beginning of the economic miracle. Drawing on material never before researched, Educational Theatre for Women in Post-World War II Italy: A Stage of Their Own recovers the life and works of forgotten women playwrights while also discussing the role models that educational theatre offered to the young Italian women coming of age in the post-war years.

Ron started in a rough place leaving home at age 11. He worked his way through the Marine Corps and combat in Vietnam before becoming a lawyer and starting a family. Eventually he meet his true love in Hong Kong but then he literally dropped dead. By a miracle he came back and found pure love.

Cultural Landscape Report for Saint–Gaudens National Historic Site

Those Who from Afar Look Like Flies is an anthology of poems and essays that aims to provide an organic profile of the evolution of Italian poetry after World War II. Beginning with the birth of Officina and Il Verri, and culminating with the crisis of the mid-seventies, this tome features works by such poets as Pasolini, Pagliarani, Rosselli, Sanguineti and Zanzotto, as well as such forerunners as Villa and Cacciatore. Each section of this anthology, organized chronologically, is preceded by an introductory note and documents every stylistic or substantial change in the poetics of a group or individual. For each poet, critic, and translator a short biography and bibliography is also provided.

Jazz Italian Style explores a complex era in music history, when politics and popular culture collided with national identity and technology. When jazz arrived in Italy at the conclusion of World War I, it quickly became part of the local music culture. In Italy, thanks to the gramophone and radio, many Italian listeners paid little attention to a performer's national and ethnic identity. Nick LaRocca (Italian–American), Gorni Kramer (Italian), the Trio Lescano (Jewish–Dutch), and Louis Armstrong (African–American), to name a few, all found equal footing in the Italian soundscape. The book reveals how Italians made jazz their own, and how, by the mid-1930s, a genre of jazz distinguishable from American varieties and supported by Mussolini began to flourish in Northern Italy and in its turn influenced Italian–American musicians. Most importantly, the book recovers a lost repertoire and an array of musicians whose stories and performances are compelling and well worth remembering.

Nice, France. Eric maturo orafo estimatore di Cellini e Botticelli, ama condurre una vita riservata tuttavia partecipa a gare estreme che lo attirano come una droga. Il suo ideale è la donna snella dal ventre piatto, colta, con l’anima pura. La separazione da Nadine che non ha rispettato l’accordo di non avere figli e che ingannandolo, è rimasta incinta, lo ha profondamente ferito. Frequenta Noor, danzatrice del ventre, e vive con lei un periodo felice ma la giovane viene uccisa ed è sospettato del delitto. Un amico avvocato trasferitosi a Nice con la moglie e la figlia Charlotte, lo invita nella nuova residenza. Charlotte prepara la tesi di laurea su Petrarca ad Avignon. La giovane avrebbe vissuto volentieri in quell’epoca per la purezza dei sentimenti esaltati dai poeti del Dolce Stil Novo. Nasce un feeling tra Eric e Charlotte che, oltre ad incarnare l’ideale femminile, colpisce l’uomo per il candore dell’anima ma questi è tormentato dalla differenza d’età. La “Costellazione del Perseo”, gioiello realizzato per l’amata gli darà il coraggio...Con uno stratagemma, Charlotte riuscirà ad estirpare da Eric la dipendenza dalle gare estreme, inoltre scoprirà l’assassino...

Dance, Human Rights, and Social Justice

Canti Del Popolo Slavo Tradotti in Versi Italiani Con Illustrazioni Sulla Letteratura E Sui Costumi Slavi

The First Sketch of His Merry Wives of Windsor. Ed. by James Orchard Halliwell

Grazia Deledda's Dance of Modernity is a highly original and innovative interpretation of Deledda's narrative in philosophical perspective, which also includes the study of textual variations and considers cultural history in Italy during the early twentieth century.

This contributed volume is a collection of international writings on dance, human rights, and social justice in the 20th and 21st centuries. The book illuminates and analyzes dance in contexts of oppression and its subversion, as well as in situations promoting access to dance, and those encouraging healing from human rights abuses through movement.
