Meeting the

Christmas

This Little Black

Book is your companion for Lent.

It's an old-fashioned

“vade mecum”

(pronounced vahday maykum). That's Latin for “travel with me” and was used to describe a book that was a constant companion – perhaps a condensed book of prayers for traveling priests, or a
handbook for quick reference –

something you could take with you
anywhere.

From the eighth to the fifteenth
centuries, Bede's authority as a scriptural exegete
was second only to
that of the Doctors
of the Latin Church.
His influence was enormous. Yet modern readers associate this remarkable scholar-monk only with his History of the English Church and Nation and ignore the works he saw as his chief accomplishment. -

Properly, while I
endeavor to expound the principles of Christian social justice, I shall also endeavor to show you how these principles can be applied. And just as properly, it will be

you to action-

Christian action,

American action-for faith without good works is dead. Thus,

at the outset, while I

the heroic sacrifices

favor today-the favor of a prayer to the

beseech all of you to ask the spirit of understanding to fill
me with prudence;
and the spirit of

fortitude to give me strength and courage to carry on the battle against the hidden powers of darkness-perhaps not quite so hidden today as yesterday. May I also suggest that you will ask your little children who are ignorant of the

wretchedness and

suggest that you ask these innocent

You are anxious to know what topics I shall discuss during the insuing year.

Roundly speaking, it is my hope that these addresses will be concerned chiefly with Christian social justice. While my ultimate objective is to help more and more men to save their immortal souls,

I recognize how difficult it is for man to practice Christian virtue, to live a holy life in peace and contentment, when he and a great group of his fellowmen are denied unjustly an equitable share in the goods and wealth of this world-goods and wealth which our common Father in heaven bestowed upon all men for all men to use and enjoy-

goods and wealth,
which, alas, have been concentrated in the hands of a few to the detriment of the many because an un-Christian species of social injustice was foisted upon us in the past few centuries and because, as a result of this, an alien philosophy of social injustice, under the name either of

Communism or

Naziism, is endeavoring to win

our allegiance today.

Fearlessly, Christian

social justice

challenges these

several systems for the attention and the support, in this instance, of the American public-a public composed of persons who, despite their many faults and shortcomings, will never surrender the

whose empty depths
there echo and re-
echo the immortal words, "I am the Resurrection and the

these precious heritages it is our hope to carry on a campaign of instruction and inspiration even though we find ourselves opposed by the rugged individualists on the right and by the unchristly radicals on the left. It is our hope to convert a zealous band of followers into a group of active Christians-.

Christians who, by the sincerity of their lives and the logic of their doctrines shall win millions of

saving America and restoring prosperity and peace for all. My friends, at the outset, permit me to clarify the fundamental doctrine of Christian social justice-the doctrine that differentiates it from every other plan of life proposed for man to follow. It is this: Christ came on earth not only to

Access Free Little

redeem and save individuals but also to establish an absolutely new social order. Recognizing the chaotic condition of society in His own time; aware of the universal slavery
practiced virtually by every nation; and conscious of the

spiritual darkness

which had

encompassed every

kingdom, empire,

republic and tribe,

our Saviour well

understood that man,

left to his natural

abilities, was unable to acquire peace and prosperity in this world and save his

hereafter.
