

Loyalty And Disloyalty By Dag Heward Mills

"Perhaps one of the greatest enemies you will ever encounter is 'the accuser in the midst of the brethren'." Receive great insights on how this weapon of accusation is deployed and learn how to overcome it, as you read this classic book, by Dag Heward-Mills.

An excellent reference on how to manage church funds - Vital Information on proper, ethical conduct for God's servants - Clear information on achieving the frugal use of resources - A must-read manual for every genuine Christian leader who is conscious of deepening church member commitment. Bible students will find it a very useful working document in preparation for full-time ministry work.

This book is another gift from the pen of Dag Heward-Mills to all ministers who would bother to read it. This book will answer the questions on how to manage the complicated relationships between fathers and sons. Through the teaching of this book, you will avert a curse on your life and bring upon yourself a blessing. Fathers are special people who raise up sons and proteges. Without fathers there would be no children to continue the ministry to other generations. The call of God flourishes or dies with your ability to relate with fathers. Read this book and avoid the curse associated with dishonouring, disobeying and having poor relationships with fathers."

In this book Dag Heward-Mills unveils the certain characters that you deal with in your ministry and who you should watch out for. You'll get to deal with doubtful men whose loyalty comes into question from time to time, dangerous sons who can turn on you like wild tigers, bad advisors who will not protect and help you and painfully disloyal people. Scoffers and mockers will always be part of the world we live in and they don't think much of you and actually despise you. This is a spirit that tries to shut up and intimidate you. Like in any other work environment, there is always a person that you should watch out for and that is why you should be able to recognize these certain traits that are taught in this book. The author also tells the reader to be grateful. This world has six billion ungrateful people! This is what creates the discontentment, conflict and wars. There are people we must be grateful to, says Dag Heward-Mills in the conclusion of this book.

Key Facts for New Believers

Rebellious people do not remember what has been done for them and often choose to forget certain things. Judas did not remember what the Lord had done for him, neither did he remember the things he had seen and heard from Jesus. That is why he became the despicable character we know today as 'Judas'. The ability to remember is one of the most important spiritual qualities a minister can have. People who do not remember, rarely do well. They simply fail to rise to certain heights. This special book, on this rarely discussed topic is a gift from God to you.

A principle is a revelation! A principle is something that allows you to develop! A principle is a deep understanding of how something works. This book contains a collection of principles, all of which relate to the great salvation that we have experienced in Christ! Delve deeper in your understanding of salvation as you uncover these seven great principles. As you do, God will place in your hand keys that will ensure your rising into higher levels in Him.

In this classic book, Bishop Dag Heward-Mills teaches on how the ingredient of loyalty consolidates a leader's performance. Using biblical, historic and literary references, the subject is made even more relevant to every kind of reader.

People who leave you can destroy you. Nothing can describe the feeling of depression, confusion and anxiety that descends when people walk away from you. This book has been written to help you to fight the destruction that is unleashed when people leave you. Do not be deceived. Being abandoned or being deserted is not unique to you and your ministry. Many others have suffered the same things. Satan was the first rebel and has inspired all rebellions since then. With this book in your hand, you will rise up and fight the spirit of disloyalty that is released by "those who leave you." How do you fight an enemy that you cannot see? This question is the reason why Dag Heward-Mills wrote this book, because it is impossible to fight an enemy who can see you when you are not even aware of them! The key to success in your church or anywhere, is loyalty. In Leaders and Loyalty the affect of a loyal person on business or ministry are tremendous. "Qualifications do not impress me as much as loyalty does," says Heward-Mills. The author exposes deceptions of disloyalty - and as usual provides great practical examples - and reveals the keys to develop godly loyalty. The research that is shared, combined with the Bishop's personal experience, provides the reader with an excellent insight into the reality of leadership. The six manifestations of disloyalty, seven methods of dealing with disloyalty and the basic facts of loyalty are discussed.

In this book, Bishop Dag Heward-Mills teaches how tithing embodies the principles of wealth creation and the miracle of prosperity.

Steps to the Anointing

There are many things that do not look like disloyalty but are disloyalty. They are the attitudes and behaviour patterns that give rise to disloyalty. It is important to know about these things because they are often the predecessors of serious leadership crises. Satan causes the house of the Lord and uses it to stir up disloyal elements in the church. Many people use pretence, familiarity and their power of intimacy to become disloyal.
