Relacion de Las Fabulas Y Ritos de Los Incas

This is an anthology of ten short stories dealing with a broad range of Spanish American literary themes: love, hate, vengeance, justice, oppression and solidarity. A reading guide offers tips for reading in Spanish and provides guidelines for predicting a story's major events. Following each story are two different sections of comprehension activities, as well as exercises on key modismos (idioms) and grammar structures. Little Solita knows her mother left many days ago and does not know if she is coming back. To deal with her fears, the little girl finds refuge in her bedroom at night. She lets her imagination go beyond her window in search of hope and understanding. Solita discovers a smiling moon as purple as her favorite color. With

Complementación de roles y cooperación son abordados a través del cuento. El cuento también incluye la figura de un animal regional: el Morrocoy, quien vive en algunas zonas de Sur América. Este animal trae a los niños nuevos conceptos sobre especies y otras culturas. The moon recreates the sky with its beautiful presence. However, she is alone and she is sad because of it. One boy is sensitive to the moon's feelings and in conjunction with other animals, tries to help her. They decide to bring a new friend to the moon, the sun, which will accompany her. The story complements the idea of natural events. Sun and moon would provide a calm and brightness image of the sky if they are together. The book recreates the sun and moon in colorful landscapes, and fun animation of animals in natural contexts. The story describes human feelings to teach children how they would help others if they are empathetic with others needs. Complement of roles and cooperation are implied through the story. The story also includes a regional animal: the morrocoy, who lives in some plain areas of South America. This animal will bring to children new concepts about de su vida. Con un instinto que la mueve, con un sexto sentido heredado de siglos atrás, se sentirá atraída por la luna. Sin embargo, la atracción es mutua: la niña y la luna. Este libro, en su mayor parte biográfico, fue escrito en noches de luna llena, ya que la autora asegura que desde chiquita no puede dormir en estas noches, y así nace "Noches de Luna Llena." It is a quiet night. A glint of light enters through the window. The little girl awakes. From the balcony she watches the full moon. It is something amazing for
