Have you ever felt lost and seem like no one understands you? Have you ever felt so burdened by life's trials that you feel like giving up? Well, Christi Chidester's You Are Needed tells you that you are not alone. This inspirational book will give you insights about overcoming life storms of depression. It highlights the fact that God is indeed always with us and never leaves us despite what situation we are in. He has better plans for our lives and these life experiences we are going through w to inspire and influence, or would this knowledge make no difference? The answer to these questions will not make you or break you, but they will reveal you; Your character. Your conduct. Your conversation. Since we are hardwired to "read"-whether observing, scrutinizing, or analyzing-you can automatically assume your "cover and content" are being read. With that being said, R U LEGIBLE? In U MAY B THE ONLY BIBLE SOMEBODY READS, Maher explicitly communicates the clearest doctrine every person publishes is his own example. Using personal legible and illegible experiences from his own life, as well as innovative and practical insights, Maher stimulates the reader to interactively read knowing they too will be read outside the pages. With the 11 unique laws of biblical influence introduced in this book, learn how to discern and leverage influence to the watchful "I's" around you. An individual may have no clue what is printed between Genesis and Revelation, but the truth is-the genesis of your conviction dictates the revelation (unveiling) of your gospel. The message you're putting out. Therefore, if you claim to be a believer, would anyone want to be a follower of Jesus Christ based on the way you live your life? "Example prospers or plunders based on conduct," says Maher, "And your depth of character will determine your length of influence. Apply the truths in this book and you'll be a legible presentation of the Christ. Violate the truths in this book and you'll be illegible--a contradiction of Christ. The choice is yours. Let the Bible revival begin inside of you." For more than twenty years, life coach and Steubenville speaker Paul George has helped fellow Catholics discover their purpose by searching themselves, reorganizing their priorities, and establishing a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. In his debut book, George invites you to pursue authentic happiness by surrendering your life to God and focusing on simple joys: daily prayer, a minimalist lifestyle, meaningful relationships, and an ongoing pursuit of God's will. Rethink Happiness is an essential self-help guide for all of us seeking to define our purpose in life. Chock-full of relatable stories about George and his life-long work in ministry, this book will help you discover that true happiness is found when we are totally oriented to God. With the same high energy he brings to his talks to youth and adult audiences, George will help you identify what you're truly looking for in life. The book opens with the idea that we are all searching for happiness but looking in the wrong places. We're hungry for God's love, but we're stuffing ourselves with shallow relationships and unchecked materialism. George invites you to rethink this formula, by first recognizing that it's God you want and then surrendering everything to him. Embedded in Catholic

The Irish Champion Peter Maher: The untold story of Ireland's only World Heavyweight Champion and the records of the men he fought.

A disruptive and surprising journey through the Beatitudes. Most of the time, life doesn't work out like we expect it will. We spend time and energy trying to climb some sort of spiritual ladder, oblivious to the fact that it is God who is moving toward us. We want answers to our problems, yet what is offered is presence. What if we were to become united with our brokenness rather than our victories? What if God moves closest to us in the absence, the ache, and the longing? Words from the Hill turns each beatitude on its head to see the unexpected beneath the understood—diving into the story of a woman on death row to speak about mercy, personal stories from the Israeli-Palestinian conflict to talk about peace, and much more. Stu Garrard has walked with these people in their stories, and he vulnerably offers his own as he unpacks the Good News of the

A collection of wildly inventive portraits of musician Tom Waits, the result of a 30-year collaboration with photographer and illustrator Matt Mahurin This visually arresting book is a testament to the unique collaboration, going back three decades, between the photographer and illustrator Matt Mahurin and the musician Tom Waits. Having shot magazine portraits, album covers, and music videos of Waits, Mahurin was inspired to resurrect 100 dormant film negatives as a jumping off point to explore his own surreal, poetic, and occasionally dark vision. The images vary from traditional portraits to ones that capture Waits in concert—but the majority are richly imagined scenes in which Waits is more muse than musician. In addition to the diverse images, the book includes a foreword by Waits, an essay by Mahurin on their longtime collaboration, and 20 original paintings, drawings, photographs, and digital images inspired by Waits's song titles. This collection gathers the best in contemporary Christian music from the 2000s and 2010s, including songs by Billboard-charting and GRAMMY(R) Award-winning artists knit together as one book-length poem in praise of Christ in all his startling humanity. Drawing from the riches of the English poetic tradition—meter, rhyme, music—the poet considers the mysterious man from Nazareth and the world he came to set on fire with splendor. Having made a career translating the Italian masters Dante and Tasso, Anthony Esolen now puts on the dusty mantle of such English craftsmen as Donne, Milton, and Hopkins in his first book of original contemplative poetry.
