There are many rules for converting singular nouns to plurals. This worksheet gives the student practice in pluralizing singular nouns, or the reverse, or both. You can select as many of the plural rules as you wish, and examples of those types will be used to fill the worksheet page. Naturally, some rules do not have very many examples in the English language, so you may want to select several types in order to have a full page.

*"Introductions!" the man said with a kind smile. "I am King Enk, this is my kingdom -- and you," he added with a flash of his dark eyes, "you are the one we have been waiting for, Cole." For as long as Cole can remember, he has always seemed very unimpressive next to his brother and sister. However, when a trip to his grandma's ancient house turns into the adventure of a lifetime, he is given a choice which makes him question everything that he thought he wanted. Harled into a strange place where even stranger creatures dwell and fierce powers are at play, Cole must find out where his own talents lie and put them to good use before time runs out. Follow Cole through the mousehole into Deriuss: a land where all you need is a little belief in yourself to unlock a world of magic. Is it ever seen anything like it," said Nakeisha. "Am I going crazy or is that thing moving?" asked Faizal. "It's moving," Jacob confirmed, mesmerised. The Jurassic Coast is famous for its fossils of prehistoric creatures and, when Jacob and his friends aren't playing their favourite online game, he loves to explore the cliffs and beaches surrounding their village. One day, though, the four friends stumble upon something the likes of which the village – and the world – has never seen before. Can they keep their discovery a secret long enough to find it a safe home? Follow Jacob, Gabi, Nakeisha and Faizal as they learn an important lesson about trust and friendship, and make an unusual new friend along the way.
