In this book,

collected a
number of county folk tales recorded by her from childhood onwards, from
old people,
village
children and farm round-the-
fire sessions.
Many of the

beliefs
embodied in the
gipsy and witchcraft
tales are still in practice
today among the travelling
people and
locally
'gifted'
healers. The tales reveal a

good deal of
fairy lore,
some tree lore,
including
ghostly trees
like Crooker,
and the
'uncanny' Black

appearance in more than one tale. The collection

includes several of the long fireside
tales which would be told on succeeding evenings on winter nights
round the
kitchen fire,
and rhozzums
from various localities.
