Our hope as human beings lost about six thousand years ago. It's left us death; disease, hunger, poverty, hardship and so on. These resulted by our first parents sin. The penalty of this sin was second or death everlasting death. We lost hope as human beings. In fact, this kind of sin damages our being which resemble God's. There was no replacement which could be made for human to resemble God's again. Our situation was horrible to have the solution. There is nothing that God can do to solve or replace His image that has come damaged. It's left to Him (God) to create someone again which resemble to Him and lose the first image and likeness as him forever. Creating other image as Him was not His problem. But to lose that first image and likeness of Him became His burden and its trouble His heart. There was nothing that could solve this condition that Adam has brought it. He who knows the end from the beginning made provision to solve this problem in case it happens. He prepared himself and keeps watch, because of the will of a man. It's wasn't His surprise because He already know and have prepared for that. Though, God could made different image and likeness as him, but He consider and maintain the first one through love and care. That sin of Adam demanded blood which is innocent and not any other except the blood which is equal to God's to solve such penalty. Moreover, in order to solve this death penalty that Adam sin has created, God needs to become like a man and be subject to the rules that were first given to man. If this is not done; the man cannot be restored to his image and likeness of God from the beginning. It took God to become a man and live as a man. Jesus who is God accepted this condition and became a man born under the law in a set time. The sin of Adam made God a man to restore his position as a manager of creation again. It was a terrible decision made by Jesus. He is now a man forever and His condition cannot be exchange to God again. He became one of us and lived as any man. God has change into a human being because of love. Who will accept and exchange his or her nature and live like a goat? Who will accept this condition for the sake of his or her animal? Though, human beings were created in the image and likeness of God, but not as the same flesh. Our nature and structure resemble like God, but not in the same flesh and blood. Jesus accepted to live as a man with the same flesh and blood. He was God and all things were created by Him. There was nothing that was made was out from His permission.

There are silent lessons that we need mine out of David's life if we are not going to fall short on this brief but eventful journey of ours. This was a man that came from an insignificant background, given one of the most degrading jobs around and to worsen matters he was hated by his brothers. The last part informed his being ostracized from home. Yet, this man rose above all these negative circumstances and became a reference point for those that God would want to enlist in his exclusive club of warriors. There was something that made him tick such that even when he was down he was never out. In the face of death from Saul he still showed courage, grace, respect for authority and integrity. We need to find out how he did this and got approval from God even though he messed up a couple of times.

Like a real-life Hannibal Lecter--the psychopathic murderer from Thomas Harris' "Silence of the Lambs"--Charles Hatcher was cunning, sadistic and totally remorseless. He was a man with no conscience. He killed sixteen people, three of them children. Hatcher was also responsible for a different kind of tragedy--the conviction and imprisonment of an innocent man who was mercilessly hounded by the police, the prosecutor and the community for a brutal murder that Hatcher himself committed. A nomadic Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde who manipulated the legal system with gruesome skill, Charles Hatcher was the embodiment of evil, the devil's emissary on Earth. His nemesis was the lone FBI-man in St. Joseph, Missouri who risked his career to end Hatcher's reign of terror. "Innocent Blood" is the true story of Charles Hatcher and his life of crime--a powerful, and blood-chilling glimpse into the darkness between sanity and madness. It also chronicles a justice system gone wrong. Throughout his criminal career Hatcher was able to fool dozens of psychiatrists, who repeatedly failed to identify him as a multiple murderer. Hatcher's astonishing skill was not just in his ability to murder and escape imprisonment. He became an expert at manipulating the criminal justice system; overall, he outwitted police, prosecutors, psychiatrists and judges in twelve cities and eight states. Terry Ganey first covered this story as a reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Later, he spent four years researching the material for this book, interviewing over seventy-five people and reviewing thousands of documents, court transcripts, prison files, police reports and mental health records. What emerges is a fascinating and horrifying portrait of a mass murderer at large in America--a murderer who could have stalked his victims in any of our towns and cities, whether urban or rural, large or small. This is an updated edition of the New York Times bestseller that was originally published in hardback under the title "St. Joseph's Children." The New York Times called the book, "a powerfully affecting story...every parent's nightmare." Kirkus Reviews said it was "an effective cautionary tale of crime and too-late punishment." The Library Journal described the book as "a gripping tale of murder, pursuit, and justice."

And Publishers Weekly's conclusion was: "Disturbing...Justice is shown to triumph--ultimately--in this engaging, instructive true crime study."Customer reviews of the hardback edition "St. Joseph's Children" had this to say about it on the Amazon book website:--"My favorite book of ALL TIME!"--"I can hardly put this book down..."--"I highly recommend this book to all."--"What a wonderful book on a horrible miscarriage of justice."--"Book was very well written."This "Innocent Blood" edition contains additional material that editors had discarded for the first print edition. Some events and background relating to Charles Hatcher's early life have been added, as well as context, description and background. The epilogue has also been updated, and typographical errors discovered in earlier editions have been corrected.The revised book recounts the original, shocking narrative, which one reviewer wrote "penetrates the murky darkness of a soul in torment and of a town caught in despair, a town that witnessed both the unremarkable beginning and savage end of Charles Hatcher's criminal career."

*anointing of the Holy Spirit ~ Benny Hinn When Derick Virgil, at eight years old, asked his mother How are we washed in the Blood of Jesus when He died 2000 years ago and there is none here to wash us? Based on James 1:5, she told him the best thing she could have ever told him, Ask God Derick, Ask God. So he did. Now, after over 30 years of study, this book has emerged and could be considered one of the deepest Bible Studies ever written on The Holy Third Person of the Trinity & Jesus Holy Blood. Based on Theoretical Physics, Logic and Hebrew and Greek word etymologies (history and meanings) in scriptures such as: Leviticus 17:11 the Life of the Flesh is in the Blood and Hebrews 9:14 How much more shall the Blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? and many more the author reveals how the Blood of Jesus, through the Holy Ghost, washes us from sin. Also revealed are connections between Jesus turning water into wine, God allowing Moses to turn the waters of Egypt into blood, Noahs ark, the Rapture and other major Biblical occurrences. The author invites readers to join him in a sort of dimensional Crime Scene Investigation at the foot of the Cross to determine the true nature of Jesus Blood and the mysterious way It ties together all of these epic Biblical events. Hopefully, while you may already "know" the Holy Ghost personally, this book will help you appreciate Him more, depend on Him more, and honor the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit in a different way. If you would just like to know the Third Person of The Divine Trinity better or understand Christianity better, this book is for you as well. This project was designed to provide information on the usefulness of polygraph techniques in detecting truth and deception in criminal investigations. The report describes the methodology of each of the eight experiments and studies conducted. In addition to studies involving criminal suspects in a field situation, other studies involved laboratory experiments with a mock-crime paradigm. The lab experiments investigated aspects of the general problems of accuracy and reliability not easily studied in the field situation. They also assessed the usefulness of a number of physiological measures that had received little attention in previous scientific research. Studies also were undertaken to evaluate the commonly-held belief that psychopaths can beat the polygraph, the adequacy of current practices used by field polygraphists, the usefulness of different question structures in polygraph examinations, and the risks of different types of errors in field applications. The project results indicate that polygraph examinations using control-question or guilty-knowledge tests are highly accurate.
