passive income require much more initial effort to get it off the ground, like creating an app, or building a site. Understand that everything passive must first take active energy; active effort and input. The time to put in the effort is at the early stage of the business; when it's been set up. But once you begin it's very difficult not to gain both speed and direction, and after that you can continue to earn limitlessly. The goal is to make the initial effort to create streams of income that will keep rolling in even if we do nothing at all; passive income that could later totally replace your day job. As always, the interwoven relationship between money, time and freedom of choice is greatly displayed in passive income generation. Etsy? I'll be honest;
the Etsy of today is not the same one as 2012-2015 when anyone
could just put up
something quickly and
put it up for sale and expect to receive a
truckload of sales soon after. Today, things are a bit more competitive.
Only those that know
what they are doing

The business that generated that money then refers buyers and thereby income to other legs of your on-line model that also refer business back, thereby creating an effective compounding income with zero risk and in most cases zero outlay. This self-sustaining on-line business model has no need for programing skills, employees or ongoing money to be spent supporting it. What it does require is a desire to succeed, an ability to hold onto a vision and the dedication to put time and effort into learning new ways of doing things.
