Leroy Anderson's "Sleigh Ride" is a holiday favorite, and this setting for advanced piano duet gives it a fresh twist. It begins with Anderson's jingling melody and some musical banter between the primo and secondo players, and then it launches into a series of variations that take the listener on a journey through a variety of styles, from gently swirling, impressionistic arpeggios to a triumphant coda with brilliant, virtuosic passagework. Audiences will enjoy a number of other musical surprises along the way. One of the world's most frequently performed melodies, Happy Birthday to You! is now arranged for Early Intermediate to Intermediate level pianists. This arrangement includes three versions: a lead sheet, a simple harmonized version, and a song version for birthday celebrations. Includes lyrics and chord symbols.

With this concert-worthy duet setting of "Happy Birthday to You," pianists will delight audiences with inventive variations of the familiar tune. Some sections are driving and rhythmic, while others are inspired by Classical and Romantic styles. Powerful chords and brilliant octave passages create thrilling musical moments. Audiences will enjoy a number of other musical surprises along the way.

This book is for adults who are absolute beginners in music. You don't have to read sheet music or have any kind of musical background. No previous knowledge is necessary. None at all. If you don't know musical notes well, you can PLAY BY LETTER. There are 7 sections and 43 songs. All songs are adapted for beginners and can be played with just one hand. Some songs in this book have several versions, with one of them being more advanced. This will allow you to see how the same melody can be played in different keys. Whatever your age, it is never too late to begin to play the piano (or any keyboard instrument). For middle-aged people, learning a musical instrument can be a great digital detox, and it also can unlock the door to a new interest or forgotten emotions. Six of the best songs from Stevie Wonder, arranged for piano, voice and guitar. 6 of the Best simply does what it says - six of the best hits from leading artists available in a new and competitively priced format.

This classic of 1970s feminism is a "consideration of life and love from the point of view of a woman taking her first steps along the rocky road of independence. Today is entertainer Heather Jones' 39th birthday, and to celebrate, she is preparing a new act for her nightclub opening that evening. Her new act is very personal, 'an explanation of where I'm coming from,' she tells her chagrined manager, Joe; she wants to describe what it feels like to be approaching 40 and learning to make her own way. ('Oh, you're not 39,' Joe insists. 'Look at these lines in my face,' she retorts. 'We'll fix it with the lights,' he replies.) Through the songs and sketches that comprise her act--and through the constant interruptions by Joe with his own hilariously revealing, chauvinistic comments and complaints--Heather tells of the trials of becoming her own independent woman, of doing her 'Strong Woman Number,' as she puts it. Poignantly wry, she tells Of growing up in the pre-feminist 1950s ('The woman has to go 75% of the way because the man will go only 25%, if that much,' her mother instructed her); of her failed marriage, plagued by a lack of communication and emotional dishonesty; of trying to go it alone, discovering that she has become 'so self-sufficient I'm so easy to leave'--her lover thinks she's the most wonderful woman he has ever known, 'and yet, where is he? Right back there with his wife.' Here is a play that will strike the light of recognition in every reader, a clever, uplifting look at life in the 'age of liberation.'"--Adapted from dust jacket of Doubleday edition.

According to the Guinness Book of Records, "Happy Birthday to You!" is one of the world's most frequently sung songs. Words and music are by two sisters from Louisville, Kentucky: Patty Hill, a pioneer kindergarten teacher and Mildred Hill, a musician. They combined their talents to produce this song, suitable for children's voices as well as all others. Patty drew 3,000 teachers to a workshop she gave at the 1893 Chicago Worlds Fair. Shortly afterwards she was invited to establish the Department of Nursery School, Kindergarten, and First-Grade Education at Columbia University. She was the first woman to receive and honorary doctorate from Columbia.

Burgmüller's most famous work, the 25 Progressive Pieces, are short compositions with descriptive titles. Easier than his Opp. 105 and 109, each selection exposes students to a different technical challenge with the main emphasis on the phrasing, articulation, and dynamics often found in Romantic piano music. The collection includes "Arabesque" and "Ballade," both popular with many early-intermediate pianists.

Carefully selected popular hits from movies, radio and television are arranged especially for students. Optional duet parts for teacher or parent add to the fun.

Eleven attractive arrangements. Titles: * The Ballad of Gilligan's Isle * Can You Feel the Love Tonight * Theme from Inspector Gadget * The Merry-Go-Round Broke Down * Over the Rainbow * Peter Cottontail * Puff (the Magic Dragon) * Scooby Doo, Where Are You * Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious * This Is It! * This Land Is Your Land
