From Martha Gellhorn's critically acclaimed biographer, the first collected letters of this defining figure of the twentieth-century Martha Gellhorn's heroic career as a reporter brought her to the front lines of virtually every significant international conflict between the Spanish Civil War and the end of the Cold War. While Gellhorn's wartime dispatches rank among the best of the century, her personal letters are their equal: as vivid and fascinating as anything she ever published. Gellhorn's correspondence from 1930 to 1996—chronicling friendships with figures as diverse as Eleanor Roosevelt, Leonard Bernstein, and H. G. Wells, as well as her tempestuous marriage to Ernest Hemingway—paint a vivid picture of the twentieth century as she lived it. Caroline Moorehead, who was granted exclusive access to the letters, has expertly edited this fascinating volume, providing prefatory and interstitial material that contextualizes Gellhorn's correspondence within the arc of her entire life. The letters introduce us to the woman behind the correspondent—a writer of wit, charm, and vulnerability. The result is an exhilarating, intimate portrait of one of the most accomplished women of modern times.

Designed in collaboration with Kimberly Varella, this book reflects on Machine Project's ongoing artistic practice, featuring an extensive selection of photographs of past projects and documentation of new performance projects at the Tang Museum by Haruko Tanaka, Krystal Krunch, Hana van der Kolk, Carmina Escobar, Kamau Patton, Dawn Kasper, Joshua Beckman, Asher Hartman, and Chris Kallmyer among others.

This treasury sings with 120 masterful paintings of famous New Testament scenes. Hearings Before the Committee on the Judiciary, United States Senate, One Hundred Thirteenth Congress, First Session
In 1939, Europe stands on the brink of war, and Germany is desperate to find new sources of gold and platinum to fuel its war machine. When a cache of iridium, a platinum metal used in the production of the Spitfire fighter plane, is discovered in the Venezuelan Andes, Adolf Hitler personally authorizes a mission, codenamed Aguila Negra, to recover the ore and ship it back to Germany. Carburetors built with the Andean iridium would boost the Messerschmitt's velocity, giving the Germans a decided technological advantage in the battle for air supremacy. To carry out the top-secret operation, Hitler sends a submarine force along with a small band of elite paratroopers. They successfully extract the precious metal and proceed to make a run for the Caribbean coast. Only Jack Ford, an American archaeologist working for U.S. military intelligence, stands in the way of a Nazi victory. Uncertain who to trust and which way to turn, Jack decides to take the future into his own hands-and with it, perhaps, the future of the entire war

With murder, betrayal, thievery and action set in the elegance and propriety of 1756 Aberdeen, Scotland, the regal Nachmasheeghan family lives an enviable and posh life. More money, respect and power than one family should have, they all but own the town' ; until the day the equally loved and loathed family patriarch, Ian Nachmasheeghan dies, leaving his grieving widow and five sons to carry on in his stead. Spoiled rotten, the young men are not prepared for the burden' ; and the truth of the dark and heartbreaking family secret divulged to them at the reading of their father's will. Enter Tolliver Jean-Leferr, a boorish man of means. The plot thickens as Tolliver's knowledge of whom and what Ian Nachmasheeghan truly was before settling down, can offer the family salvation. But the rogue is not concerned with the family's salvation' ; only what he wants' ; and what he knows can bring the powerful Nachmasheeghans to their knees once and for all!

This is a somewhat twisted Cinderella story about a beautiful princess and her two terrible twin stepbrothers who bullied her to death, and the good that came of it many years later. It travels through time, a fantasy adventure like no other, filled with wonderful stories of the great state of MICHIGAN and its fantastic legends...tales of Michigan's Indians and local stories of Michigan places, historic railroad depots, Cat Lake, and places in Michigan's Thumb of the Mitten, and the Heart of the Thumb, a little town called Marlette. It is a tale of Good versus Evil in a time before ours, and before the prehistoric Ice Age descended on our Earth and basically killed off everything but left the glorious rivers and lakes and streams and ponds that made Michigan the Water Wonderland. It has Navy SEALS, a Sheriff's Posse diver, sunken treasure, prehistoric animals, Michigan and Detroit's historic automobiles. It also has a little bit of Disney's magic, with wizards and dwarves and Cattas, and some dragons. It is a very fun and happy book to enjoy and read again and again.
