

Prayer Journal Template For Kids

This faith-based guided journal will encourage readers to seek God's plan through prayer every day, with thoughtful prompts, beautiful color illustrations, and plenty of space for reflective writing.

"I would like to write a beautiful prayer," writes the young Flannery O'Connor in this deeply spiritual journal, recently discovered among her papers in Georgia. "There is a whole sensible world around me that I should be able to turn to Your praise." Written between 1946 and 1947 while O'Connor was a student far from home at the University of Iowa, A Prayer Journal is a rare portal into the interior life of the great writer. Not only does it map O'Connor's singular relationship with the divine, but it shows how entwined her literary desire was with her yearning for God. "I must write down that I am to be an artist. Not in the sense of aesthetic frippery but in the sense of aesthetic craftsmanship; otherwise I will feel my loneliness continually . . . I do not want to be lonely all my life but people only make us lonelier by reminding us of God. Dear God please help me to be an artist, please let it lead to You." O'Connor could not be more plain about her literary ambition: "Please help me dear God to be a good writer and to get something else accepted," she writes. Yet she struggles with any trace of self-regard: "Don't let me ever think, dear God, that I was anything but the instrument for Your story." As W. A. Sessions, who knew O'Connor, writes in his introduction, it was no coincidence that she began writing the stories that would become her first novel, Wise Blood, during the years when she wrote these singularly imaginative Christian meditations.

Including a facsimile of the entire journal in O'Connor's own hand, A Prayer Journal is the record of a brilliant young woman's coming-of-age, a cry from the heart for love, grace, and art.

The directive is so simple: Be still. Draw close. Know Me. Yet who hasn't struggled with the art of quieting your mind and heart to truly dig deep into the intimacy God offers His beloved? The Weekly Prayer Project allows you that moment for reflection and invites you to write your prayers to the One who loves you unconditionally.

My Salah Journal is a special journal for Muslim kids! Your child can track each salah they perform daily for a week covering 52 weeks for a full year. My Salah Journal provides a child a means to log the salah they perform in Fajr, Dhur, Asr, Maghrib, and Isha. On the next page, a child can review their salah progress in being Regular, Timely, and Focused. There is also a place for them to write their salah struggle that week, as well as how to improve their salah for the following week. Children can use their Salah journal as a way to keep track of their prayers to formulate it as a habit and to instill it as a regular part of their spiritual journey. The journal was created simple yet effective for children 7 years and older to use. The design is a bullet journal concept, so your child can decorate their Salah pages any way they like to make it colorful and personal. Purchase your child a My Salah Journal to start him/her towards a more spiritual journey of instilling prayers in their life. This is also a great gift for your son, daughter, grandchild, niece, nephew, or a friend!

On these pages, you will find lines and spaces for you to write down and record your daily prayer time with God. The main reason why I created this journal was for my own personal time with God. I needed one place to record not just my personal time but also a place to record notes from church services and write down prayer requests. They were never in one place. However, now they are and I'm excited to share this resource with you. After a mid-week bible study at my local church, I came to the realization that I needed something that would organize my prayer life and help me succeed in my prayer goals. Every day you will spend time in prayer and then record your thoughts for that day. It may seem simple but the dedication to pray consistently is something that many people do not have. Prayer isn't a resort. Prayer is a lifestyle. So grab a pencil or a pen, and begin your prayer journey to your best prayer life ever!

This is a study over the book of James for families or churches. In this study, the book of James in the New Testament is divided into weekly lessons with ideas for games, crafts, snacks, videos, songs, and a lesson time. There is also a letter that can be copied and sent home with the parents each week describing what was learned, along with a Bible reading plan that will help children and teens read the Bible on their own in between meeting times. This is a great study to do for family Bible times or in a church youth group, children's worship time, Sunday School, or after school program!

God never gives up on us. He remains steadfast in His desire to bless us, even when many of us are tempted to doubt His love. The great tragedy is that so many of us spend our lives trying to earn something we already have - the gift of life which God freely gives us when we decide to follow Christ. This amazing devotional from best-selling author Neil Anderson will give readers back what the enemy is trying rob from them an understanding of their special place in God's family. Here are 36 readings and prayers based on scriptural passages that assure us of God's love and our security and freedom in His kingdom.

You've got battles to fight—on your knees. The teen years can be tough; don't try to make it through without one of your most powerful weapons—prayer. A companion book to the movie War Room, this new kind of journal will get you ready for a new kind of prayer life, one that's strong, growing, and reflects just how powerful prayer is. Each short chapter tackles one of the biggest questions teens have about prayer, questions such as: Why pray, anyway? What should I pray for? Are selfish prayers okay? Who should I pray for? Am I really supposed to pray for my enemies too? Will God listen? And will He answer? Just-right journaling prompts will then get you thinking—and praying—and reinforce the real power of fighting battles on your knees.

How to instruct your child to pray without bringing a negative connotation to salah, is a question many parents ask. The book, Teach Your Child Salah and Make It Stick! is a Muslim parent's must-have read. It is written by a parent of six who shares her approach of teaching salah to her own children. You'll find tips on how to get your child more motivated to pray from a veteran and experienced parent of many kids. In This Book You Will Learn: - Valuable advice on what works and what doesn't when teaching your child salah. - How to teach salah to your child with love and understanding for younger and older kids. - 25 Ways to teach your child to perform salah with more success inshallah! This book is not about the fiqh (method) of teaching a child to make salah, rather it is a manual to assist a parent on how they can instruct and motivate their child to pray more effectively.

Quieting Your Heart: 6-Month Bible-Study Journal is designed to draw you closer to God as you dig into His Word. Spend an entire year of discovering God's blessings, and develop a lifetime of gratitude. God loves everyone, and one way He shows His love is through showering us with blessings! Whether it's with parents who love us, warm sunshine, or the ultimate blessing of His Son, Jesus, God's love is everywhere. When kids see that God is the source of all blessings, it reminds them that all gifts truly do come from God. Children will learn to not only see God's blessings in happy days, but to see His loving hand in hard days as well. Developing a habit of giving thanks in all circumstances will lead children to a lifelong spirit of gratitude. Each devotion features Scripture and a bite-sized message that will keep the attention of young minds. Devotions also have a takeaway to help children engage with the message and apply its meaning to their lives. Meets national education standards.

This is a story about a little boy -- a happy little boy who loved to do all the normal things a happy little boy would do. But then he started school and his struggles began. Finding it next to impossible to learn to read, this happy little boy soon became sad as he learned he had dyslexia. How will this little boy deal with the challenges he will now face? Written specifically for children with dyslexia, "The Boy Who Couldn't Read" will help your child learn to survive and THRIVE with dyslexia.

You have an enemy . . . and he's dead set on destroying all you hold dear and keeping you from experiencing abundant life in Christ. What's more, his approach to disrupting your life and discrediting your faith isn't general or generic, not a one-size-fits-all. It's specific. Personalized. Targeted. So this book is your chance to strike back. With prayer. With a weapon that really works. Each chapter will guide you in crafting prayer strategies that hit the enemy where it hurts, letting him know you're on to him and that you won't back down. Because with every new strategy you build, you're turning the fiercest battles of life into precise strikes against him and his handiwork, each one infused with the power of God's Spirit. New York Times bestselling author Priscilla Shirer, widely known for her international speaking, teaching, and writing ministries, brings her new role from the 2015 film War Room into the real lives of today's women, addressing the topics that affect them most: renewing their passion, refocusing their identity, negotiating family strife, dealing with relentless regrets, navigating impossible schedules, succeeding against temptation, weathering their worst fears, uprooting bitterness, and more. Each chapter exposes the enemy's cruel, crafty intentions in all kinds of these areas, then equips and encourages you to write out your own personalized prayer strategies on tear-out sheets you can post and pray over yourself and your loved ones on a regular basis. Fervent is a hands-on, knees-down, don't-give-up action guide to practical, purposeful praying.
