

Principles Of Intercessory Prayer Ministerial Association

Is there someone you are praying for? Is someone you love sick? Out of work and looking for a job? Trying to find a spouse? Everyone has concerns about their loved ones and desires for their well-being. The person of faith prays to God for help. When things do not seem to be going well, however, doubts may arise. Why has God not answered my prayers? Why is it taking so long? You want your prayers to make a difference. What are the things that you can use to reach God and move His heart? How can you activate your prayers? Where do you start? In this book, Eric Welter explores twelve promises in the Bible that are "power tools" for prayer. Using Christian biblical principles such as faith, righteousness, obedience and forgiveness, the author presents reflections on how each "power tool" will help you grow in confidence in your prayers for your loved ones. Each section leads you through a reflection on a "power tool" using Scripture and other Christian resources. Additional material is provided for consideration at the end of each section for those who want to take a deeper dive. Your journey through the "power tools" for prayer can only deepen your relationship with God through prayer for a purpose. As you seek God in prayer and lift up your loved ones, you will find yourself being changed - and that is when God will start to move.

PRAYING FOR MIRACLES is a non-fiction book about Bible study, faith, prayer and miracles. The author, Newton Walkin, surveys the miracles of the Bible and shows how relevant these are in assisting Christians today when praying for miracles. The book has three parts: (1) deals with the person and work of the Holy Spirit and the veracity of the Bible; (2) examines the principles of intercessory prayer; and (3) looks at prayers and miracles in action. The Appendix II helps those studying the Bible from cover to cover more than once. The book is useful for the general Christian reader, lay preachers, Sunday school teachers, prayer groups, intercessors and first year Bible Studies students at university, seminary and Bible College. The book has 550 pages and 27 chapters. Walkin comes from a Christian home. He is a member of West Croydon Baptist Church (WCBC), Croydon, England founded by James Spurgeon in 1869. The views in this book are entirely those of the author and do not represent any church, organisation or ministry. From July 1999 to December 2006, Walkin achieved, by God's generous grace, his vision to read the Bible from cover to cover 21 times, shown in Appendix II. Walkin believes in the awesome power of intercessory prayer of faith. Walkin said, "If our faith is strong enough we can successfully pray for miracles." On November 21, 2004, Walkin wrote a prayer for London to win the 2012 Olympic Bid, held July 6, 2005. He wrote another prayer: Olympic

Prayer for Peaceful Games In 2012. And in January 2009 wrote a Prayer/Psalm for President Barack Obama's protection. Now an evangelist Christian writer, Walkin and his wife Eileen were baptized in March 2001 at WCBC. Walkin also regularly attends Trinity Baptist Church, Croydon, England.

Make your life a ministry of intercession--and help release God's best into the world! In this book, you'll learn specific principles of intercessory prayer and how to apply them and pray with dramatic effectiveness for unknown people in foreign lands, as well as for your own loved ones.

In order for each local congregation to evangelise its neighbourhood and lead people to Christ, it must be healthy emotionally and spiritually. This is the transformational premise of this standalone workbook. It seeks to assist lay persons, congregational leaders and church officials in applying the biblical principles, as captured in Victor Marshall's innovative Set the Captive Free Resource Guide, to their lives and ministries. Set the Captives Free: 12 Studies for Groups or Individuals, with its twelve studies, is based on a model of discipleship that includes positive emotional health. Having built the above-mentioned premise into the workbook, the author encourages you to use the information in the workbook to help with your progress. As you engage with the material in the workbook which will take you to a deeper level of your life, you will move beyond simply hearing or reading about emotional health and intentionally develop emotional health as you grow in Christ. Session after session, you will engage in a number of processes, journeys and steps through which you can practically apply the biblical principles as you seek to experience a Christ-directed transformation in your life. The aim of providing this material is to assist you in experiencing optimal health.

The Lord Jesus Christ seeks a person or people who can stand in the gap before Him in favor of an individual, a family, a nation and His Church: an intercessor. Intercession is a support to see God acting favorably for his people. For someone to succeed in a given area they should know the biblical vision of intercession, which explains the steps of an efficient intercession: this starts by worshiping God and meditating on His word, while doing so, the Lord will announce what He has in His heart. An Intercessor has also to be aware of the depth and importance of intercession, he should know the need of intercession, he has to identify himself with those for whom he is interceding, and should have a heart of fire. The understanding of the principles of intercession makes the intercessor to be an invisible man whose actions are visible everywhere he goes, for he is a man without limit. He becomes the fire that can consume any work of Satan and ensures successful destinies of people here on earth.

As the worldwide prayer movement continues to flourish, never before have so many Christians from so many faith traditions joined together to intercede for so long--in their homes, in their churches, in their communities. As the prayer movement continues to explode, leaders emerge to give guidance to the growing number of intercessors . . . and Alice Smith is at their forefront, leading the leaders who have lifted the banner of passionate, effective intercessory prayer for this generation and the next. In Beyond the Veil, Smith proclaims God's call for His people to pray and shares what she has learned on her own journey toward deeper intimacy with God through prayer. Whether readers are new to intercession or are veteran prayer warriors, they will discover sound, biblical methods for binding the enemy and loosing the Holy Spirit in their families, churches, and nations. Each chapter includes questions and prayer exercises, with a corresponding devotional to bring the principles of intercession to life, making Beyond the Veil the essential guidebook for the prayer revival that is sweeping the globe.

Principles of Prayer

Heb 5:12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.The writer of the book of Hebrews had just censured those whom he had addressed, telling them that though they were at an age when they should be eating meat, they were such that still needed milk. He tells them that they need to get with the program and start eating meat. He says that they ought to be teachers, but they still behave as babes.This seems to be a perpetual problem in the Church through the ages.The commission Jesus gave to the disciples was to go and make disciples (teach all nations), teaching them to go and teach others the things which He had commanded them ("TEACHING THEM TO OBSERVE ALL THINGS WHATSOEVER I HAVE COMMANDED YOU"- He had just commanded them to go and teach those who were entrusted to them to make disciples). We derive our English word "discipline" from the word "Disciple." The Christian walk is a walk of discipline.It was to be an ongoing thing. We make disciples, and then we teach them to make disciples. But in order to make disciples, we ourselves should understand the basic principles that Jesus taught.

This issue of The Ministry includes the first nine messages given during the 2004 spring term of the Full-time Training in Anaheim, California. The general subject of this series of messages is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. What is typified by the experiences of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob is realized in the New Testament, especially in Galatians 3--6. Abraham's experiences represent the experiences of God the Father (3:8, 29), Isaac's experiences represent the experiences of the Son (4:28), and Jacob's experiences represent the work of the Spirit in discipline and transformation (cf. 5:16; 6:8; 5:22-23). The experiences of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob culminated in God's people, Israel. God's goal always was and still is to have a corporate people to express and represent Him on the earth. The existence of such a people--Israel in the Old Testament and the Israel of God in the New Testament--depends upon certain kinds of spiritual experiences had by all the people of God. Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are the foundation of the nation of Israel. Their experiences were not merely for themselves. Their experiences were to gain a corporate people, all of whom know God and experience Him as the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Last of all, we include a report concerning the 2005 Chinese-speaking perfecting conference in New Jersey.

*Throughout his ministry, Andrew Murray passionately prayed and taught people about prayer. In this volume he combines his devotional writing with his only study guide on prayer: "Pray Without Ceasing." His simple but profound goal is teaching Christians how to change the world through the powerful ministry of intercession. The seven steps in Every Need Met are based on biblical principles and are a sure method for receiving Gods supernatural provision for the world to see. Living a life of abundance is the believers birthright, and it is Gods good pleasure to provide it (Luke 12:32). It is a living testimony of His love and kindness. A life with every need met is a promise from our heavenly Father (Jehovah-Jireh), the God of provision. He delights in providing for our every need be it spiritual, physical, emotional, financial, mental, or social. Every Need Met is a lifestyle of abundance for the purpose of glorifying God and meeting the needs of humanity. Are you ready to experience Gods best in every area of your life? model and the principle of agreement to corporate prayer. The ideas and principles can be applied in any type of group setting.

Samuel Rees Howells, A Life of Intercession: The Legacy of Prayer and Spiritual Warfare of an Intercessor by Richard A. Maton, Paul Backholer and Mathew Backholer Rees Howells, a powerful intercessor, taught his son Samuel the principles of intercession and commissioned him some weeks before his death, stating, "Whatever you do, stand and maintain these intercessions." For the next fifty-four years, Samuel Rees Howells exercised a powerful intercessory ministry as he focused prayer on gospel liberty, in order for the good news of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be given to every creature. With the mantle of intercession weighing heavily upon him, Samuel spent decades participating with others in their own countries, in profound spiritual struggles that shook world events and shaped history for God's glory! Discover how Samuel was led by the Holy Spirit to exercise authority over the principalities and powers, and to 'pray through' until God's purposes were fulfilled in many lethal world conflicts. Learn how God still intervenes in world history, from the Korean War to the Cuban Missile Crisis, and from the Six-Day War to the fall of the Soviet Union! Beginning in the days of Rees Howells, this book continues this powerful story of intercession and traces its effectual legacy into the twenty-first century. Filled with principles of intercession, faith and spiritual warfare, this book provides a fascinating insight into what is possible when the Holy Spirit finds an individual, who will stand in the gap and become a channel for His intercession. Ezekiel 22:30, Romans 8:26-27, Ephesians 6:12. Richard A. Maton worked under Samuel's ministry for forty-seven years and provides us with an eyewitness account of Samuel's life of intercession. Richard is married to Kristine who joined Rees Howells' Bible College in 1936 and prayed alongside him. Together Richard and Kristine spent more than 120 years at the College!

The calling to start a prayer ministry is often a daunting one for many. Lets face it, there are not very many places that one can go to find out how to do this. There are many things involved in building a prayer ministry. It is important to remember that while spiritual gifts are essential, there are practical steps needed to grow a ministry on a national and international level. Such as government regulations, policies and business strategies that need to be employed to operate and maintain success. This book was written to help you navigate not only through the spiritual aspects but the practical as well.

In a world that is filled with communication tools at our fingertips, Back to Basics distinctly reminds us that prayer is faster and more effective than any social media device created. Doris Hope delightfully brings to the forefront that prayer is a tool that causes you to supersede all the tactics of your enemy and gain the victory in every situation. This book will reveal to you why prayer is necessary and the amazing results it will have on your life. It will also help you to: Build a prayer relationship with God Pray for spiritual and natural success Increase your intimacy level with God Be confident when you communicate with God Defeat your enemy with prayer Back to Basics will set your heart ablaze for the love of prayer. Whether you are a new believer or a seasoned saint, you will find that the prayer principles contained in this book will catapult you to a level of intimacy and successful living with God. About the Author Doris Hope is dedicated to living a successful life through the power of prayer. Her mission is to help others find peace in the grace of God and to maintain H.O.P.E. - Healing Over Pain Effectively. She serves on the Intercessory Prayer Ministry at her local church. Doris and her family live in Virginia.

Jesus told His followers to go into the world and preach the Good News. However, many Christians aren't fulfilling this Great Commission. The call to "evangelize" conjures up uncomfortable images of walking inner city streets with a megaphone. We don't relish facing possible ridicule so prevalent in society today, so we hesitate to reach out. But we are called to witness. And it isn't that difficult. When we anchor in the goodness of Christ, we realize that sharing the Gospel is a profound honor. The Ministry of the Unveiled Face grounds us in the simplicity of sharing Christ in the everyday. The meekness of the call lies in our being responsive and obedient to God's prompting as we interact with others. Anchored in persevering prayer, we speak scriptural truths into the lives of others as the Holy Spirit leads. Like the unveiling of a beautiful bride at her wedding, the spiritual veil is removed and Christ's truth and goodness are revealed. Prayer is by far the most common and familiar religious practice known to man. However, do we really know how to pray? Why did both Jesus and John the Baptist find it necessary to teach their disciples—religious Jews who were supposedly already very familiar with the concept and practice of prayer—how to pray? In The Technology of Prayer you will discover the biblical science or technology of prayer that causes it to be focused and effectual in reproducing and establishing God's Kingdom architecture here on earth. You will discover:

- The true purpose of prayer
- What it means to be a “house of prayer”
- Prayer's architecture and foundation
- Common myths and misconceptions about prayer
- What causes prayer to fail
- How to pray accurately
- The true meaning of intercession
- Jesus' model and example

Watching or reading the news is an opportunity to give in to fear and despair--or to make a difference! In Praying the News, concerned readers will find a practical guide to discovering the power, joy, and peace of partnering with God. Veteran news reporters Wendy Griffith and Craig von Buseck offer an unvarnished assessment of the media, as well as a comprehensive biblical plan for effective, world-changing prayer. They tell behind-the-scenes stories, not only of effective prayer for the news, but also of their prophetic intercession while reporting the news. Bad news is no match for the Good News of God's kingdom! Praying the News meets a deeply felt need as we continue to be shaken by the events we see on the news.

Principles of Effective Prayer

How to Plan, Prepare and Successfully Complete your Short-Term Mission

How to Pray with Boldness, Authority, and Supernatural Power In a world full of desperate need, we turn expectantly to prayer, hoping to witness the realities promised in Scripture. Most of us, however, seldom see the results we hope for. Why don't our prayers make more of a difference? Beginning with her own experiences of breakthrough, Jennifer Eivaz offers much-needed direction and the biblical context for prayer that does make a difference--explaining the intervention of angels and demons, prophetic manifestations, and much more. She helps believers take hold of their authority and spiritual giftings and use them in the battle for victory. The Kingdom principles and study questions will help every believer navigate the spiritual realm of prayer by using the tools that make it truly effective.

Jesus Christ did not sit Sally down at the beginning of her walk with Him and say, "You will teach others how to pray, and help Me to build 'houses of prayer'." Throughout thirty years of ministry as she served in the church... as she worked in youth and family ministry... as she met individually with people who had great needs... as she took part in organized prayer ministries and national prayer outreaches... as she eventually helped to establish healing ministry training sites... it became apparent to her that there were people that knew how to pray effectively and who saw the Lord doing amazing things. From observation and experience it became apparent that Jesus Christ likes ***active, ***effective, ***heart-engaged, ***holy, ***sincere, and ***united prayer before His throne of grace for others and for the world! This in no way belittles 'passionate individual prayer' or 'Jesus' working His own desired miracles', but 'united prayer ministry' enlarges the foundational work of 'reaching the world for Christ' and provides places where 'healing those most wounded' are available in our day of human history. The time has come to unite those who intercede... ***for others...***for the Church... ***for communities... and ***for the world, so that the 'bride of Jesus Christ' will bring in the 'great harvest of souls' in this hour of history. We have much work to do - in His Name! Enjoy the journey!

Esteemed as one of the greatest Christian works in history, this book effectively explains short and easy methods of prayer for those who hunger and thirst after God's presence.

Equip your church to pray with power. Intercession is one of the most important ministries within a church. However, many churches fail to achieve their kingdom goals because they don't have a dedicated team of committed and enthusiastic intercessors consistently praying for the needs of the congregation. Armed will give you the tools you need to develop an intercessory prayer team that prays with power to tear down strongholds, and release God's will in your church and community. Each chapter contains tested principles for developing and managing intercessors who know their spiritual authority, are unified with the church, and operate in their spiritual gifts. Whether you're establishing a new team or looking for better ways to manage an existing team, Armed will equip you with everything you need to build a culture of prayer in your church and to lead with impact.

"Go and make disciples . . ." It's one of the most familiar phrases in the Bible, but one of the most puzzling and challenging to see fulfilled. How does one "make" a disciple? What's the cost? What's the reward? Why do so many Christians struggle with this Great Commission directive from the Lord? This book presents seven clear, biblical principles of ministry for serious Christians who want to have significant personal ministries. It gives encouragement, motivation, and practical instruction for success in making disciples for Jesus Christ. These are principles such as "Be what you want others to be," "Give your life to people, not just your knowledge," and "Don't use people to build your ministry; use your ministry to build people." This book will deepen your appreciation for the power of lay ministry and help you be a disciple-maker for Christ, right where you are.
