*It is said the wolves roam the forest, looking for maidens to join with their pack. They appear as monsters, half-man, half-beast, and claim unsuspecting women as their own. Hannah knows all the stories of the werewolves that live in the forest beyond her village. She knows they're dangerous and that she should never venture into the woods after dark. But the wolves are calling to her, and Hannah doesn't know how much longer she can resist their invitation. She's never been touched by a man – what unspeakable acts will Hannah be forced to endure if she answers the call of a pack of insatiable werewolves? Featuring first time, ménage, gang, oral, front and back door, double stuffing, autoeroticism, voyeurism, and romance. This is a short, stand-alone story of 12,000 words, describing a wolf-man encounter. No cliff-hangers, HFN ending. Except: I'm running, running from the creatures in the woods. I know now what it is that they want, what they need. I saw everything. Layla was there, my friend, spread-eagled beneath one of their hairy forms, moaning and writhing. The sounds she made! Pleasure and pain mixed together, her voice rising and falling until she let out a howl to compare to the very creatures themselves. Are they still chasing me? My heart is beating so loudly I'm deaf to all else. Why, oh why, did I follow Layla into the forest? Why didn't I run home when I had the chance? I've heard all the stories and I knew what could happen, and still I came. Curiosity is an urge that few can resist. And now I'm caught with my hand in the cookie jar, and I cannot escape. They are following! I can hear padded feet trampling the leaves on either side of me. They're close. From the corner of my eyes, I count the moving shadows. Five. Six. Seven. How many creatures are chasing? How many will have their way with me before this night is over? I suck another fiery breath of air. My lungs burn. I cannot run much further, and the safety of the village is still so far away. I must face these creatures and in doing so, face the desires that burn deep within me. If I'm honest with myself, truly honest, then I know that part of me wanted to be caught like this. War hovers in the wings with the fate of the Republic at stake when the old doge dies. Fourteen-year-old Nico, a street urchin from the poorest Venetian parish, is chosen at random to tally votes in the upcoming election for a new leader. Uprooted from his old life and transplanted to the doge's palace, Nico becomes an alienated outsider at the mercy of scheming nobles. Andrea Contarini, sixtieth doge of Venice, wants the ducal throne less than Nico wants to be ballot boy. Both walk a golden tightrope over treachery and deceit. When he witnesses a court clerk burned at the stake for being gay, Nico despairs. His romantic attraction to men is as powerful as his fear of fiery death and an eternity in Hell. Taking advantage of the fraught transition in the Doge's Palace, the hostile duke of Austria pushes Trieste to rebel against Venetian domination, jeopardizing her mastery of the Adriatic Sea. The Venetian nobles split, trapping the doge between hawks rabid for war, and rich merchants desperate for peace. With his own life on the line, Andrea Contarini opts to attack decisively and end the crisis swiftly, but his gambit is sabotaged. Trusting only the boy at his side, Contarini sends Nico to Trieste to be his eyes and ears. As the Venetian commanders wrangle over tactics, Nico falls for Astolfo, the young, charismatic lord of Castle Moccò, an indispensable but unreliable ally. Will Nico return to Venice a celebrated hero? Or will he be forever haunted, guilt-ridden, and still concealing his deepest secret?
