This Reference Manual contains the entire New Jersey Real Estate License Law, N.J.S.A. 45:15-1 et seq., as amended through P.L. 2019 Chapter 177 of the 2019 Second Annual Session of the New Jersey 218th Legislature, and all rules issued under the statute through the New Jersey Register, Vol. 49, No. 13, July 3, 2017. The text of the statute is an exact duplication of the official text of the law???, with minor changes and updates. The text of the rules is an exact duplication of the official text found in Title 11, Chapter 5 of the New Jersey Administrative Code???, with minor changes and updates. This reference manual is being furnished to real estate licensees by General Referral. It is being provided so that licensees may have the benefit of a current publication of the New Jersey License Law and the Rules promulgated thereunder. The Real Estate Commission urges all brokers to make this manual part of their office library, conveniently available to all licensees. This reference manual project was originally authorized pursuant to N.J.S.A. 45:15-16.2 as an educational and informational project. This updated and accessible version of the manual is produced by the team at General Referral, a New Jersey real estate referral brokerage. The New Jersey Real Estate Commission was created in 1921 by an act of the legislature, N.J.S.A. 45:15-1 et. seq., entitled "An Act to define, regulate and license real estate brokers and salesmen, to create a State Real Estate Commission and to provide penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof." Five members of the Commission must be real estate brokers, licensed for a period of at least ten years; two members are public members and one member is a representative of an appropriate department of state government. All members of the Commission serve for a term of three years except the government representative who serves at the pleasure of the Governor. The Model Rules of Professional Conduct provides an up-to-date resource for information on legal ethics. Federal, state and local courts in all jurisdictions look to the Rules for guidance in solving lawyer malpractice cases, disciplinary actions, disqualification issues, sanctions questions and much more. In this volume, black-letter Rules of Professional Conduct are followed by numbered Comments that explain each Rule's purpose and provide suggestions for its practical application. The Rules will help you identify proper conduct in a variety of given situations, review those instances where discretionary action is possible, and define the nature of the relationship between you and your clients, colleagues and the courts.
