Requirements for Consumer Registration of Durable Infant or Toddler Products - Final Rule (US Consumer Product Safety Commission Regulation) (CPSC) (2018 Edition)

The Law Library presents the complete text of the Requirements for Consumer Registration of Durable Infant or Toddler Products - Final Rule (US Consumer Product Safety Commission Regulation) (CPSC) (2018 Edition). Updated as of May 29, 2018 The Consumer Product Safety Commission ("Commission") is issuing a final rule under section 104(d) of the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008 ("CPSIA"). In accordance with that section, the final rule requires each manufacturer of a durable infant or toddler product to: provide a postage-paid consumer registration form with each product;

500 employees often spend too much time trying to understand the standards, changing their current systems, and over documenting every aspect of their daily operations. Time is money, and since many smaller companies delegate the project to one individual - who already has a full time job - understanding the basics as quickly as possible is essential. With anything new there is required research and knowledge - this book shortens the learning curve by explaining the key points, possible pitfalls, costs, and requirements to achieving registration. The author walks you through the process step-by-step, supplying examples of required documentation, auditor questions, methods of compliance, and basic program suggestions. Included in the text are two quality manuals. The accompanying disk contains templates for these quality manuals, procedures, forms and documents that can be revised as needed. Each procedure gives you a clear
