marketing. It shows you how to tap into the power of residual income. Residual income is the money you can make without exerting any of your own time and effort. This is the opposite of how most people get paid, which is by the hour. With only 168 hours in a week, the amount of money they can make is limited. Residual income is how the richest people can go to the golf course every day and still make big money. Or take exotic vacations while the money keeps flowing in. Some of these people are able to retire and do nothing - and the money keeps coming in like clockwork. Don't envy these people, join them! Imagine how your life would be if you could take off for a month or two and keep getting huge sums of money. Think about how things could be if you could make money while shopping, sleeping,
