Yet her plans lie elsewhere, with the hunt for the elusive firebird and the hope that an outlaw prince still survives. But as she begins to unravel the Darkling’s secrets, she reveals a past that will forever alter her understanding of the bond they share and the power she wields. Feeling powerless and alone, she yearns for escape. When Santha stumbles upon a small, rusted key in the forest near her home, it seems her silent pleas have been answered. Awakened by her touch, the key demands to be heard—and she is not the only one to heed its call. Thrust into a world only glimpsed in the stories of her childhood—of faeries and princes and eldritch magick— Santha sets out to unlock its secrets. But uncovering the truth has its own perils, and as the key's influence grows, she will be left with a choice: survival or sacrifice. But will it truly be hers to make? ... All the while, in the north, something ancient stirs. A great power that could unravel the very threads of existence.
