Have you ever wondered if you could do more with your life? If you feel as if there is an entire world just beyond your grasp, but you are being held back from reaching your potential? Stop dreaming about success and achieve it by unlocking the potential within you. The human mind is a powerful tool and so many of us do not use even a fraction of the power that you can harness and it will change your life. Why be miserable and wish for success when you can be happy and successful, the power for both lies in your thoughts. What we think about we bring about and when you focus on the wrong things, you end up with more negatives in your life than positives. Turn things around and start inviting in the right things and you will wonder why you waited so long to buy this book. All-male Strips from Gay Comix, Meatmen and Elsewhere

William Morgan, alias Howard Stangroon, and Stephen Lowther are back! Both authors set the tone of the Meat Men anthologies in the early 80's through the mid-90's, not to mention countless other comics. The stories in Prime Cuts run the gamut from gentle humour to hardcore, spiced with a bit of science fiction and naturally with a few invincible super heroes as well.

It's the week before Christmas when a lone robber bursts into a busy Glasgow post office carrying an AK-47. An elderly man suddenly hands his young grandson to a stranger and wordlessly helps the gunman fill bags with cash, then carries them to the door. He opens the door and bows his head; the robber fires off the AK-47, tearing the grandfather in two.

DS Alex Morrow arrives on the scene and finds that the alarm system had been disabled before the robbery. Yet upon investigation, none of the employees can be linked to the gunman. And the grandfather-a life-long campaigner for social justice-is above reproach. As Morrow searches for the killer, she discovers a hidden, sinister political network. Soon it is chillingly clear: no corner of the city is safe, and her
