New! I now have a 4 part video series available on YouTube that can be used as a companion to this book. When you're on YouTube, just search "Test Prep Spot Elizabeth" to find the videos. My name is Elizabeth and I'm the creator of The Test Prep Spot. I'm also a private tutor for high achieving students preparing for the SAT. Additionally and most importantly, I'm a special education teacher in a public school working with students who have learning and language challenges. The more I tutored, the more concerned I became about my special education students. They would need more supportive materials in order to understand what's covered on the SAT. They would also need simplified, explicit instruction in content and strategy. So, I made my own study guides and The New SAT Essay Writing Guide is my answer to this problem. Inside the guide, you will find step-by-step instructions that take you from start to finish. This book provides a formula (or template or plan) for writing the New SAT Essay. I begin by analyzing the prompt and tell you exactly the kind of essay you're expected to write. Then, I teach you about the most common persuasive devices used on published sample and practice essay questions. Next, I break down a passage and identify each persuasive device that's used by the author. Then, I examine three effective example essays (based on just one passage) to show you how to use the formula. The example essays are even color-coded to help with understanding the formula. Finally, the guide ends with a reproducible template, which is extremely helpful for organizing thoughts and learning this writing process. Who should use this guide? I truly believe it can help everyone, but it can be especially beneficial for students who need explicit, step-by-step instructions and formulas to be successful writers. Visit me at www.testprepspot.com

The instant New York Times bestseller and publishing phenomenon: Marina Keegan’s posthumous collection of award-winning essays and stories “sparkles with talent, humanity, and youth” (O, The Oprah Magazine). Marina Keegan’s star was on the rise when she graduated magna cum laude from Yale in May 2012. She had a play that was to be produced at the New York Fringe Festival and a job waiting for her at The New Yorker. Tragically, five days after graduation, Marina died in a car crash. Marina left behind a rich, deeply expansive trove of writing that, like her title essay, captures the hope, uncertainty, and possibility of her generation. Her short story “Cold Pastoral” was published on NewYorker.com. Her essay “Even Artichokes Have Doubts” was excerpted in the Financial Times, and her book was the focus of a Nicholas Kristof column in The New York Times. Millions of her contemporaries have responded to her work on social media. As Marina wrote: “We can still do anything. We can change our minds. We can start over...We’re so young. We can’t, we MUST not lose this sense of possibility because in the end, it’s all we have.” The Opposite of Loneliness is an unforgettable collection of Marina’s essays and stories that articulates the universal struggle all of us face as we figure out what we aspire to be and how we can harness our talents to impact the world. “How do you mourn the loss of a fiery talent that was barely a tendril before it was snuffed out?
